MEDIA INFORMATION

TEMPORARY GAMEDAY MEDIA OPERATIONS FOR 2011 SEASON

Due to ongoing construction at Amon G. Carter Stadium during the 2011 season, several aspects of gameday media operations will experience changes. Announcements on the new press box location and entrance will be made as the season approaches. Wireless Internet will still be provided in the press area on gamedays, although hard-wire telephone access will not be available. Also, please note changes below in media parking location and availability.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for official working media credentials should be directed to the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office. All credential requests should be received no later than noon, two days prior to the game. For more information, contact TCU Athletics Media Relations at (817) 257-7969 or (817) 257-5394. Season credentials will be available for pickup prior to the first game. No credentials will be mailed after Tuesday preceding the game. Thereafter, credentials may be picked up on game day at the media will call located at the media entrance of Amon G. Carter Stadium (TBD).

MEDIA PARKING

Media receiving credentials for TCU's home football games are also provided convenient parking privileges, although parking will be extremely limited during the 2011 season due to construction. The main media parking lot will be located in lot 1A, which is south of Amon G. Carter Stadium across Bellaire Drive North. Other media will be located in a lot on the east side of campus.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Wireless Internet is available in the Amon G. Carter Stadium Press Box as well as for postgame filing in the Four Sevens Team Room. Login information can be obtained via your seat tag or through a media relations staff member.

TELEPHONE UNITS

Telephone access will not be available in the Amon G. Carter Stadium Press Box during the 2011 season. If you require telephone access, please contact the TCU Athletics Media Relations in advance of game day.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media entrance to the Amon G. Carter Stadium press area will not be determined until closer to the start of the 2011 season. For more information as the season approaches, please contact the Media Relations Office.

WEEKLY NOTES, RELEASES, STATS

All TCU game notes, news releases and statistics can be found on the department's web site at www.gofrogs.com.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Due to construction of the Amon G. Carter Stadium press area, location of the visitor's radio booth will be announced prior to the start of the 2011 season. For more information as the season approaches, please contact the Media Relations Office.

TELEVISION

TCU's live television appearances will be governed by the existing Mountain West Conference policy and association. All non-conference television appearances originating from Amon G. Carter Stadium must be approved by TCU Athletics Director Chris Del Conte. Those TV production crews planning to telecast TCU games may contact the TCU Media Relations Office for suggestions of catering services to handle production crew's game day meal arrangements, as these crews are not served through TCU's pre-game media meal service. For information concerning electrical power, hookups and other similar needs, contact TCU Associate Athletics Director Ross Bailey at r.bailey@tcu.edu or (817) 257-7009. The TCU Physical Plant can also be of assistance at (817) 257-7955.

TIMEOUT POLICY

All electronic timeouts will be scheduled in accordance with Mountain West Conference-approved guidelines.

SCOUTING PASSES

Professional scouts may obtain credentials through TCU's Media Relations Office. Scouts will be issued seating in the press box on a space-available basis.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete stats, scoring summaries, running play-by-play, quick-ie stats and post-game notes and quotes are provided by the TCU Media Relations Office. Pre-game food service is available beginning approximately two hours prior to kickoff, while beverages are available throughout the contest. This service is provided as a courtesy to working media. In addition, concession areas are available within the stadium confines.

WORLD WIDE WEB

More information on TCU football, as well as all Horned Frog athletics, can be accessed on the internet at www.gofrogs.com.

LOCKER ROOMS

The TCU locker room is closed, both at home and on the road. The visiting team's post-game press conference is held just outside the visiting locker room area. A temporary location for the visitor locker room in 2011 will be announced prior to the start of the season.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Following an approximate 10-minute cooling-off period, TCU coach Gary Patterson and requested players will conduct interviews in the media room located in the Four Sevens Team Room. Following road games, Patterson and requested players will be available outside the visitor's locker room. Post-game interviews are arranged through a member of the TCU Athletics Media Relations staff. Enter through the weight room area located in the Walsh Complex. Admission to the post-game press conferences are limited to those individuals holding media credentials issued by the TCU Media Relations Office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field photographers must wear a photo armband in plain sight at all times. Photographers may obtain armbands in exchange for their sideline-photo credentials. This exchange may be made at the media will call area (location TBD). These sideline credentials are limited to representatives of daily newspapers, wire services, television camera persons, specially-approved publications and those persons on assignment from the TCU Media Relations Office. Only those photographers on assignment will be authorized credentials. Space does not allow for freelancers. NCAA rules limit photographers to restraining lines clearly marked on the field. Photographers uncertain of sideline restrictions should seek clarification from a member of the TCU Media Relations staff.

COVERING PRACTICE

The TCU football team typically conducts workouts between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m, Tuesday through Thursday. Normally, the Frogs do not practice on Monday. Walkthroughs on Friday are closed. All remaining practices are generally open, unless otherwise specified, and interested media are invited to attend. Photographers – both print and electronic – are welcome to TCU workouts but must adhere to restrictions of photo location and availability at the practice site. TV crews and photographers are permitted to shoot practice only after receiving clearance from the Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEWS WITH COACH PATTERSON

TCU coach Gary Patterson is available for telephone interviews between 2 and 3 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday. Interviews with Coach Patterson are coordinated through TCU Media Relations Director Mark Cohen at m.cohen@tcu.edu or (817) 257-5394. Patterson will also be available each Tuesday throughout the season at his weekly media luncheon in the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex. The luncheons run from noon to 1 p.m. Patterson will also be available for comments following practice sessions.

JUST TCU, THANK YOU!

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU football, TCU basketball, TCU baseball, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully request that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation–TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

INTERVIEWS WITH PLAYERS

All interviews must be coordinated through the TCU Media Relations Office. Media wishing to conduct player interviews are encouraged to do so at the TCU Football Media Luncheon each Tuesday (in season) in the Four Sevens Team Room in the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex. The luncheons run from noon until 1 p.m. Interviews may also be obtained before the players report to pre-practice meetings or at the conclusion of practice. To schedule an interview, contact the TCU Media Relations Office before 10 a.m. on the day you wish to conduct the interview. No player will be pulled from the practice field to conduct an interview. Home or cell numbers will not be made available to the media and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Media Relations staff.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

To arrange a telephone interview, contact the TCU Media Relations Office at least one day in advance so that ample time is given to notify the player or coach.

MOUNTAIN WEST MEDIA RELATIONS

Contact the Mountain West Conference Media Relations Department for any information or questions concerning football in the MWC. League information is available at www.themwc.com. The football contact is Javan Hedlund. He can be reached at jhedlund@themwc.com or (719) 488-4051.

MWC TELECONFERENCE

Coach Patterson will participate in the Mountain West Conference's weekly football coaches media teleconference each Tuesday, beginning Aug. 30. Coach Patterson's time slot is scheduled for 11:42 a.m. CT (10:42 a.m. MT and 9:42 a.m. PT). Interested media may access the teleconference by calling Javan Hedlund at the Mountain West Conference for more details.

TCU ATHLETICS MEDIA RELATIONS

MARK COHEN, Assistant Athletics Director / Media Relations

Mark Cohen is in his seventh year as TCU's athletics media relations director and primary football contact. Cohen oversees the publicity efforts for the Horned Frogs' 20 sports.

In July 2009, Cohen received the Scoop Hudgins Outstanding SID Award from the All-American Football Foundation. He was TCU's Athletics Department Teammate of the Month in November 2008.

Prior to arriving at TCU in August 2005, Cohen spent 16 years at Wofford College. He was hired as Wofford's sports information director in 1989 by former TCU athletics director Danny Morrison, who was then the Terriers' athletics director. Cohen was promoted to assistant athletics director in January 1992 and to associate athletics director in September 1996.

After graduating from Cal State Fullerton in 1988, Cohen began his career in Texas as an assistant in the University of Houston sports information office. While employed with the Cougars, Cohen also worked in various game-day capacities with the Houston Astros, Houston Oilers and Houston Rockets.

While earning a B.A. degree in communications and a minor in business administration at Cal State Fullerton, Cohen served as the media relations director for the 1988 Titan baseball team which advanced to the College World Series. Cohen and his wife, Sarah, have three sons: David, Adam, and Steven. David, a freshman at TCU, works as a student assistant in the media relations office.

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM

STADIUM HISTORY

When the Frog faithful began to overflow the stands at the team's former home, Clark Field, the TCU Board of Trustees realized that a new stadium was needed for the TCU football program. Thus, the Board of Trustees voted for a new stadium and created the Athletics Committee to study the cost as well as find a way to pay for it.

Momentum for the new stadium hit an all-time high when the Frogs claimed their first Southwest Conference championship on November 30, 1929, when all-conference quarterback Howard Grubbs engineered a late fourth-quarter drive to tie crosstown rival SMU, 7-7. In Francis Schmidt's first season with the Frogs, TCU concluded the season with a 9-0-1 record, and stadium talks began to heat up.

The Athletics Committee recommended that the University begin a "quiet campaign" headed by Fort Worth Star-Telegram owner and publisher Amon G. Carter to raise $150,000 for the stadium that would seat roughly 30,000. The newspaper publisher recommended that Fort Worth residents raise 60 percent of the money for the stadium. Eventually, the sides settled on selling mortgage bonds to construct a $350,000 stadium that would seat 27,000, but could expand to over 60,000.

The TCU Board of Trustees endorsed the settlement, and in 1929, a football stadium began to take shape. Less than one year after beginning construction on the stadium, the Frogs played their first game against the University of Arkansas on October 11, 1930. With Amon G. Carter Stadium at capacity of 22,000, the Frogs defeated the Razorbacks soundly by a 40-0 count, which marked a crowning achievement and the perfect dedicatory battle.

Over the next two decades, several expansions of Amon G. Carter Stadium began to take shape from the end zone to the east grandstand areas. In 1948, construction to east grandstand increased capacity by 8,500 to a total of 30,500 while three years later, 2,500 seats were added to the north end zone to up the total to 33,000. In 1953, the stadium once again expanded to a total capacity of 37,000 following a 4,000-seat expansion to the east grandstands.

Amon G. Carter Stadium reached another milestone in 1956 as a two-level press box and upper deck area was added, which featured a giant 60' x 120' display of the school's logo - the curved Purple and White "TCU." The letters were displayed on the bleacher seats and could be seen when flying over Amon G. Carter Stadium towards the DFW International Airport. When construction was completed in 1956, the official capacity of Amon G. Carter Stadium was 46,083 - over double what it was when originally constructed.

The newest round of construction did not occur for three decades when the seats in the lower grandstands were removed and replaced by aluminum seats in 1985. The upper deck area followed suit in 1991 when all of its seats were replaced by aluminum seats, which actually decreased the attendance of Amon G. Carter Stadium to a total capacity of 44,008. In addition, the original artificial turf was replaced with natural grass prior to the 1992 season.

MODERN ERA

Over the last 15 seasons, Amon G. Carter Stadium has undergone a major facelift as several new facilities and additions have aided the Frogs in becoming one of the premier programs in all of college football.

The facelift began in 1996 when the Walsh Physical Performance Complex was constructed at the cost of over $11-million, which included a home to the TCU Sports Medicine Center, football locker room expansion, weight room and equipment room. Dedicated to former TCU trustee - F. Howard Walsh, and his wife, Mary D. Fleming-Walsh - the complex features over 22,182-square-feet and is located just outside the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

The weight room inside the Walsh Physical Performance Center received a $100,000 renovation in Summer 2006 and sits at over 9,000-square-feet, featuring nine double-sided power racks with platforms, three new sets of dumbbells and 1,000-square-feet of state-of-the-art weight room flooring.

In 2002, a new scoreboard and video board were installed in the north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium following a generous donation by the Dave E. Bloxom Sr. Foundation.

The John S. Justin Athletic Center was also completed in 2002 in the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium. The $7.5-million facility houses offices for all Frog football coaches and staff along with the TCU Athletics Administration. The John S. Justin Athletic Center also contains a video lab, academic learning areas, team meeting rooms and the Encke Heritage Center, which plays home to a vast collection of trophies and other historical athletics memorabilia. Inside of the Encke Heritage Center are the Frogs' two football national championship trophies in addition to Davey O'Brien's 1938 Heisman Trophy and LaDainain Tomlinson's 2000 Doak Walker Award.

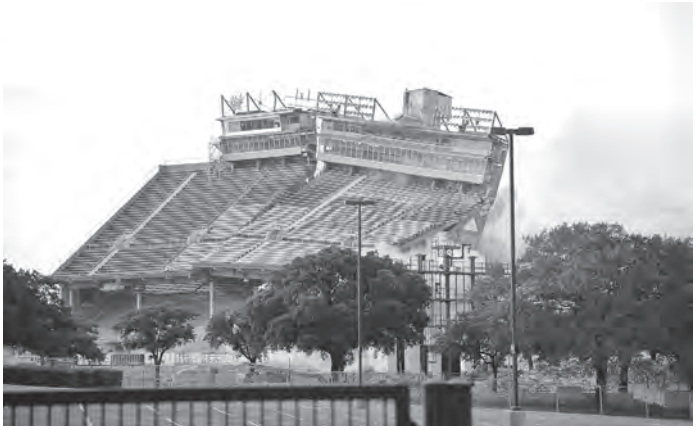
The field at Amon G. Carter Stadium was renamed after W.A. "Monty & Tex" Moncrief in 2003 following a $3-million donation to the football program in honor of the legendary oil family and one of the first families of philanthropy in the state of Texas. Also in 2003, Amon G. Carter Stadium became the home of the annual Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl Game.

The most recent expansion to Amon G. Carter Stadium came in August 2008 when the 40,000-square-foot Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center was constructed. At the cost of $13-million, the newest addition was fully-funded by nine donors and features six luxury suites, 250 club seats, academic and team meeting space as well as a player lounge area. Frog faithful also receive a unique view of Amon G. Carter Stadium as the suites are the closest suites to the field in any stadium in the country. With the most recent expansion, the total capacity of Amon G. Carter Stadium was increased to 44,358.

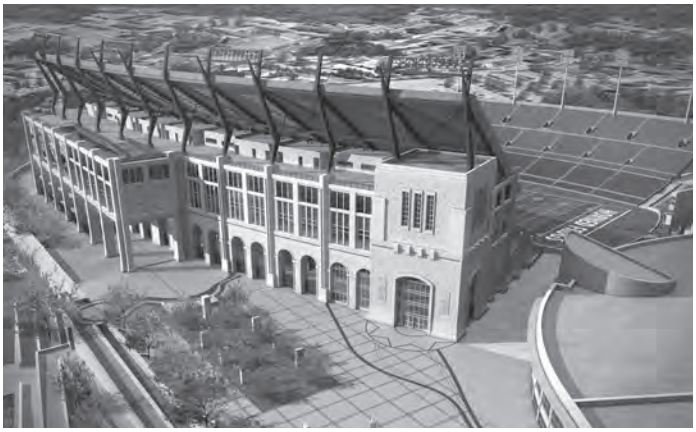


A NEW ERA

On Aug. 16, 2010, TCU announced a $105 million renovation of the west side and north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium to better enhance the football fan experience, upgrade amenities and transform the historic Fort Worth icon into the "Camden Yards" of collegiate football stadiums.

Work on the renovation, which is funded by donor support, will continue throughout the 2011 season and be fully completed prior to the start of the 2012 campaign.

"We must continually provide students the best possible university experience," TCU chancellor Victor J. Boschini Jr. said. "This includes building facilities to support a vibrant living experience and an outstanding learning environment. I am pleased that over the past five years we have successfully raised funds to improve academics, athletics and student living.



"This stadium renovation, which would not have been possible without the generous support of our donors for which we are very grateful, will propel us to yet another level of excellence that will positively impact our university as well as the city of Fort Worth. We also are extremely grateful to the Amon G. Carter Foundation for their initial gift of $15 million that made this entire project possible, one that will result in a significantly improved game day experience for all fans."

Construction began immediately following TCU's final 2010 home game versus San Diego State on Nov. 13, 2010. The historic south tower structure was first removed prior to the implosion of the iconic west side upper deck of the stadium during the morning of Dec. 5, 2010.

After construction, Amon G. Carter Stadium will have a seating capacity of 40,000 that can be expanded to more than 50,000 seats.

"We are very grateful to our donors for making this possible," TCU director of intercollegiate athletics Chris Del Conte said. "Having a first-class stadium with all the modern amenities is key in enhancing the student-athlete experience and providing our community with a fabulous venue to enjoy football games.

"I also would like to thank Chancellor Boschini and our Board of Trustees who are truly the wind beneath our wings on this project. They were behind us every step of the way. Special thanks also go to associate athletics director Davis Babb and head football coach Gary Patterson for their unbelievable fundraising efforts. They are true leaders and team players. We are incredibly appreciative of the tremendous support we received on this historic project from TCU and Fort Worth."

TCU began examining the possibility of renovating its stadium in 2006 when Luther King, chairman of TCU's Board of Trustees (BOT), appointed Clarence Scharbauer, vice chair of the BOT, to lead a stadium renovation committee. The committee's invaluable work, along with that of TCU administrators, led to a stadium renovation that will lift the historical icon to a level of national visibility on par with the University's championship-winning football team.

"Having a new stadium will have a great impact on our recruiting efforts," Patterson said. "It helps us take the next step in what we're trying to accomplish as a program, and that's winning a national championship. We want to thank all of our friends for making this stadium possible."

This is the first major renovation to Amon G. Carter Stadium, built in 1930, since the upper deck was added in 1956.

Designed by HKS Sports & Entertainment Group, who most recently completed work on the Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, the renovation greatly enhances the fan experience by improving stadium accessibility, seating and views of the playing field.

The renovation consists of:

- Significantly upgraded and new concession stands for better access and reduced wait times
- Elevators and escalators to better facilitate stadium accessibility and crowd flow
- A new, raised seating bowl on the west and north end for enhanced field views
- Upgraded and additional men's and women's restrooms
- Suites, club seating and lounges on the west side of the stadium
- A new press box

Dan Phillips, AIA, senior designer with HKS, said the design references the 1930s style of Southwestern art deco prevalent throughout Fort Worth and the surrounding region.

"Through research, we discovered that Amon G. Carter Stadium's original design intent incorporated this architectural style," Phillips added. "However, it was not fully realized. The new design blends seamlessly with the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex, the TCU campus and the city of Fort Worth."

Suites and lounges also will reflect the Southwestern art deco as well as the graphics and way-finding signage throughout the stadium. By integrating the University colors, HKS has created a unique look and feel for the renovated Amon G. Carter Stadium. In addition, the north concourse will mirror the south concourse and fans will be able to see the field while walking through either concourse.

"Unlike the majority of major college football facilities in the country, which tuck fan amenities under the seating bowl, the new Amon G. Carter Stadium brings the action on the field into the main concourse - allowing fans to always be connected to the game," Phillips said.

SAM BAUGH INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY & COX FIELD

HISTORY

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field was dedicated to the TCU Athletics Department on May 10, 2007, and provides Horned Frog student-athletes with one of the best indoor practice facilities in all of collegiate athletics.

Following a $7-million gift from the Jane and John Justin Foundation and Cox Family, the Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field is an 80,000-square foot complex that features an 80-yard field with a regulation 52-yard width and two full end zones. The climate-controlled facility measures 60 feet from turf to the highest point of its vaulted ceiling, which allows for all passing and kicking drills.

Widely-recognized around the country as a model for future indoor facilities, the Linbeck Group was awarded with the 2008 AGC/Quoin Summit Merit Award sponsored by the Association of General Contractors for their efforts. A long-time partner of TCU Athletics, the Linbeck Group received the honor for developing the project to TCU's satisfaction and recruiting needs while overcoming the adversity of several weather-related obstacles, including 42 days of down time during the wettest year on record in Fort Worth.

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field was designed by Hahnfeld Hoffer Stanford.

THE LEGACY OF SLINGIN' SAMMY BAUGH

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility is named after one of the greatest players in TCU as well as NFL history - Slingin' Sammy Baugh. During the 1935 campaign, Baugh led the 12-1 Frogs to their first-ever national championship following a Sugar Bowl victory over LSU. It would be the first of two national titles that the Frogs would capture in a four-year span.

In his final collegiate game, Baugh guided the Frogs to a 16-6 victory over Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Game on January 1, 1937 and helped TCU cap off a 9-2-2 overall record. The former quarterback presided over the Golden Era of TCU Football and guided the Frogs to 29 victories during his collegiate career.

A first-round pick of the Washington Redskins in 1937, Baugh became known as the first true passer in NFL history and became a major influence in the offensive revolution that swept professional football during the late 1930s and early 1940s. During his 16-year career with the Redskins, Baugh won a record six NFL passing titles to go along with seven inclusions in the All-NFL Team.

Baugh was considered one of the most versatile athletes in the NFL during his time as he also led the league in punting for four consecutive seasons and captured the passing, punting and interception titles during the 1943 season.

Following the 1952 season, Baugh retired from the NFL. The former TCU legend stood next to the likes of Jim Thorpe, George Halas, Bronko Nagurski and Red Grange as part of the first-ever NFL Hall of Fame Class in 1963.

MEYER-MARTIN ATHLETIC COMPLEX

DUTCH MEYER ATHLETIC COMPLEX & ABE MARTIN ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT CENTER

Named for legendary TCU coaches, the $13-million, 40,000-square-foot Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center, also known as the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex, made its debut in August 2008 and features six suites with approximately 255 club seats.

The facility sits atop the Walsh Physical Performance Complex and features an expansive club lounge for socializing and premier dining while watching the TCU football program. The complex also includes increased academic space and team meeting areas and was fully-funded by nine donors. The revenues from the complex during football season goes directly to supporting athletics scholarships through the TCU Frog Club.

With 40,000-square-feet of team meeting space, tutor rooms, a computer lab and players' lounge - not to mention a new club level and suites for fans - the Meyer Martin Athletic Complex is first-class in every regard. The facility boasts six suites, the revenue from which equates to one athletic scholarship, and comes equipped with mini-bar, cushion seating, flat-screen TVs and the closest view to a field in all of college football.

The club level for fans offers a first-class food service in addition to flat-screen TVs and plenty of seating. In addition, a Skybridge connects the club level to club seating.

The players' lounge is comfortable and technology-rich, and with in-wall lighting, flat-screen TVs, game consoles and comfortable sofas, it makes the perfect setting for the team to relax.

The Four Sevens Team Meeting Room seats 120 and features acoustic-setting fabric walls and a state-of-the-art projection system for watching the film. In addition, Coach Patterson has his weekly press conference inside the Four Sevens Team Meeting Room.

THE MEYER & MARTIN COACHING LEGACY

Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the head football coach for the Frogs in 1934 after former coach Francis Schmidt was lured away to Ohio State. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others.

The Frogs posted a 12-1 record during the 1935 and following a 3-2 victory over LSU in the 1936 Sugar Bowl, TCU was crowned the national champions. The Frogs continued success during the 1937 and 1938 campaigns with O'Brien at the quarterback position. The 1938 squad was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest teams some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's squad rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl to claim their second national championship.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the Southwest Conference and won another championship during the 1944 campaign. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951 and two years later, the Frog football coach became TCU's athletics director (a position he held until retiring in 1963).

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant - Othol (Abe) Martin - took over the coaching reins. Martin installed the popular T-formation, and in just three seasons, found the championship formula. His 1955 squad - led by All-American Jim Swink - waltzed to nine victories in 10 games with their lone setback coming to Texas A&M. Martin would go on to capture two more Southwest Conference titles during the 1950s.

During his 14-year tenure as head football coach, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 overall record to go along with five post-season bowl appearances and producing seven All-Americans.

The legacy of Dutch Meyer and Abe Martin helped deliver seven of TCU's 16 conference championships and 12 of the program's 26 all-time bowl appearances.

TCU-IMG SPORTS NETWORK

TCU-IMG SPORTS NETWORK

On July 1, 2006, TCU reached a seven-year agreement with IMG Sports, the national leader in collegiate sports marketing, that provides the company with primary multi-media rights to TCU Athletics. With the partnership, IMG Sports receives the rights to all sales and marketing opportunities associated with Horned Frog sports, including the TCU radio network for all sports, print advertising in various athletic department publications, promotions and all signage in TCU athletics facilities. In the spring of 2010, TCU announced a new five-year radio partnership with WBAP 820 AM and 96.7 FM that began in the 2010-11 athletics campaign. TCU receives an enhanced national presence through WBAP, which operates one of the most powerful stations in the country. The night-time signal reaches 38 states in addition to parts of Canada and Mexico. WBAP consistently ranks as one of the top-rated radio stations in the Metroplex. The TCU- IMG Sports Network broadcasts can also be heard in the Metroplex on 88.7 FM KTCU, in Houston on 100.7 KKHT-FM and around the world via the internet on gofrogs.com. TCU also features a Spanish language broadcast on Univision Radio KFLC-AM 1270.

PRESENTED BY LEGACY TEXAS BANK

The Gary Patterson Call-In Radio Show Presented by Legacy Texas Bank airs each Thursday throughout the season from 6-7 p.m. on 92.1 FM The Legend. The show, hosted by Brian Estridge, features TCU players, coaches and fans and broadcasts live from Railhead Smokehouse in Fort Worth.

TCU-IMG SPORTS NETWORK PERSONALITIES

BRIAN ESTRIDGE

Brian Estridge is in his 14th season at TCU providing insightful and entertaining play-by-play as the "Voice of the Horned Frogs" and Director of Broadcasting. In addition to his TCU radio responsibilities, Estridge has also provided play-by-play for numerous ESPNU and CBS/Westwood One radio productions. The Kershaw, S.C., native's radio career began at age 14 with stops along the way in South Carolina, North Carolina and Ohio where he served as the play-by-play voice of Miami (Ohio) University and Appalachian State University. His play-by-play has been honored by both the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters (TAPB) and the Press Club of Dallas as the best play-by-play in the state. Estridge is the co-host of The WBAP Morning News, DFW's top-rated morning show.

JOHN DENTON

John Denton, a former Horned Frog kicker, is in his 23rd year serving as color analyst on the TCU Sports Network. Denton lettered four years as a kicker and punter for the Horned Frogs from 1981-84. Denton has drawn myriad assignments with Westwood One and CBS Radio Sports and their coverage of the NCAA Tournament, NFL Monday Night Football, NFL Playoffs and Major League Baseball's Game of the Week, as well as working with ESPN. In addition to his TCU football color analyst duties, Denton serves as analyst for Horned Frog men's basketball broadcasts and is TCU Athletics' Director of Major Gifts.

JEFF WILLIAMS

Jeff Williams is back for his 13th season as the sideline reporter for the TCU Sports Network. Serving as the play-by-play voice of TCU women's basketball since 1998, Williams began in 1999 as the sideline analyst for TCU radio and television broadcasts in football. He also provides play-by-play accounts for select Frog men's basketball games. A current staff member at WBAP radio, Williams was the play-by-play voice of Penn State women's basketball from 1993-95.

PRODUCTION STAFF

Josiah Miller—Producer/Engineer (7th year)
Kyle Crews—Production Assistant (3rd year)
Robert Smith—Studio Host (1st year)
Wayne Gossard—Spotter (21st year)
Bryan Lucas—Network Engineer (1st year)
Brian Sperry—Statistician (16th year)

SPANISH BROADCAST PERSONALITIES

MIGUEL CRUZ

Miguel Cruz, a veteran broadcaster in the Metroplex area, became the first-ever play-by-play announcer for TCU's Spanish language broadcast when it debuted on Univision Radio 1270 AM in 2010. Cruz has spent the last eight years covering sports in Dallas-Fort Worth for Univision. In addition to hosting the daily radio show Ultima Jugada 1270 AM and the weekly television show Accion Deportiva Extra on Univision 23, Cruz also has been sideline reporter for Dallas Cowboys broadcasts and provided Spanish color analysis for the Dallas Mavericks' Univision radio broadcast.

ELVIS GALLEGOS

Elvis Gallegos, a four-year letterman as a Horned Frog safety (2003-06), is in his second season as analyst for TCU's Spanish language broadcast. Gallegos played in 45 games as a Frog while helping the team post three 11-win seasons and a pair of bowl victories. He finished second on the team in tackles in 2004 with 56 stops while making a career-high seven starts at free safety in Gary Patterson's defensive system.

2011 SEASON PREVIEW

HORNED FROG OFFENSE

TCU returns five starters on offense, although 11 different players on that side of the ball have started at least one game in their Horned Frog career. The tailback position will be a strength as TCU's top three rushers are back. Ed Wesley, Matthew Tucker and Waymon James combined for 2,300 yards a year ago as TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns (73), points scored (541), first downs (327) and total offense (6,199 yards). Also headlining the returnees is 2010 Freshman All-America wide receiver Josh Boyce, who led TCU with 646 receiving yards while placing second with 34 receptions and six touchdown catches.

CASEY PACHALL

ED WESLEY

JOSH BOYCE

QUARTERBACK

Casey Pachall (6-4, 208, So.) came out of the spring as the projected starter. Pachall, a four-star recruit who turned down scholarship offers from the likes of Florida, Michigan and Notre Dame to come to TCU, appeared in eight games last season. The Brownwood, Texas, native saw his most significant action in the regular-season finale at New Mexico, when he replaced an injured Andy Dalton in the first half and passed and ran for touchdowns in helping lead the Horned Frogs to victory. For the season, Pachall completed 6-of-9 passes (66.7 percent) for 78 yards and a touchdown with no interceptions. He also added 94 yards rushing and two scores on a 6.3 per carry mark. Pushing Pachall for the first-team nod will be Matt Brown (6-1, 185, RFr.). Also a highly regarded recruit, Brown was ranked by Rivals.com as the No. 11 dual-threat quarterback in the nation coming out of Allen, Texas. He redshirted last season in his first year on campus.

RUNNING BACK

TCU returns its top-three rushers from a year ago in Ed Wesley (5-9, 200, Jr.), Matthew Tucker (6-1, 210, Jr.) and Waymon James (5-8, 203, So.). All three had 100-yard games last season. Wesley became the first Horned Frog since 2003 to rush for 1,000 yards as he totaled 1,078 and a team-best 11 touchdowns on a 6.5 per carry mark. He ran for a career-high 209 yards in a 38-7 win over Air Force. An Irving, Texas, native, Wesley was a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection and a Doak Walker Award semifinalist. Tucker totaled 709 yards (4.8 per carry) and seven touchdowns. His season-best 131 yards came against San Diego State. Tucker has already totaled 1,675 yards rushing in his first two seasons, putting him on pace to finish in the top three all-time at TCU. James contributed 513 yards in his first season of action for the Horned Frogs. The Sherman, Texas, product came on especially strong at the close of the year. In four of the last five games, he totaled at least 55 yards and his top-four rushing efforts of the campaign. James picked up TCU's final first down of the season in the final minute to preserve the 21-19 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin. Adding depth is Aundre Dean (6-0, 215, Jr.). A Parade All-American out of Katy, Texas, Dean led all TCU backs with a 7.0 per carry average last season. His 223 yards rushing placed fifth on the team. Luke Shivers (6-0, 220, Sr.) holds down the fullback position. He also has a knack for finding the end zone, scoring nine touchdowns on just 18 career touches.

WIDE RECEIVER

2010 Freshman All-American Josh Boyce (6-0, 203, So.) headlines the TCU receiving corps. Boyce topped the Horned Frogs with 646 yards receiving, while his 34 receptions and six touchdown catches were both second on the team. Boyce saved his best for teams from the state of Utah. After totaling a season-high eight receptions for 127 yards and two touchdowns in a 31-3 victory over BYU, he had 126 yards and two scores in a 47-7 win at Utah. Included in Boyce's total against the Utes was a 93-yard touchdown strike from Andy Dalton. Boyce had at least one catch in 12 of the 13 games, including a key 44-yard grab in the 21-19 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin. Antoine Hicks (6-2, 212, Sr.) battled through injuries last season and will look to regain the form from his sophomore year when he totaled 10 touchdowns on just 32 touches. He led TCU that season with six touchdown catches, including three of at least 62 yards. Hicks had 13 receptions for 175 yards and two touchdowns in 2010. Skye Dawson (5-10, 175, Jr.), the fastest Horned Frog on the roster, is a Mountain West Conference track and field champion in the 60 meters. Dawson placed sixth on TCU with 12 receptions for 170 yards last year. He had a season-best four catches for 69 yards in the 30-21 win over Oregon State. Jonathan Jones (6-4, 215, Sr.) is a three-year letterman who adds experience to the position. Jercell Fort (5-11, 195, Sr.), who arrived at TCU as a cornerback before being moved to tailback, will make his debut at receiver this fall. A graduate student, Fort is a two-year letterman who rushed for 64 yards on 14 carries last season. Ethan Grant (5-10, 175, RFr.) was a four-star signee last year from Coconut Creek, Fla. He redshirted in his first year on campus.

LOGAN BROCK

KYLE DOOLEY

JEFF OLSON

TIGHT END

Logan Brock (6-3, 260, Sr.) is a returning starter. He led all TCU tight ends last season with six receptions, averaging 18.3 yards per catch with two touchdowns. Brock is the older brother of TCU linebacker Tanner Brock and, like wide receiver Josh Boyce, is from Copperas Cove, Texas. Corey Fuller (6-6, 255, Jr.) and Robert Deck (6-4, 270, Sr.) add depth and are returning lettermen. Fuller had two receptions for 30 yards last season. Stephen Bryant (6-5, 242, RFr.), a 2010 redshirt, is also in the mix for playing time.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Although just one official starter returns, a total of four players have started games on the offensive line in their TCU careers. Kyle Dooley (6-3, 315, Sr.) will be in his third year as a starter at left guard. The Papillion, Neb., native came to TCU as a walk-on. Blaize Foltz (6-4, 310, Jr.) and Jeff Olson (6-4, 300, Sr.) enter the fall as starters at right guard and right tackle, respectively. As injury replacements, Olson has made four career starts while Foltz has two starts to his credit. Spencer Thompson (6-4, 305, Sr.) is another game-tested veteran. He started three games last season and will enter preseason camp second on the depth chart at left guard behind Dooley. James Dunbar (6-6, 305, So.), is the projected starter at left tackle. He lettered in a reserve role behind Marcus Cannon last year. Backing up Dunbar will be Nykiren Wellington (6-6, 275, RFr.) and Tayo Fabuluje (6-7, 317, So.). Wellington redshirted last season. Fabuluje, a native of nearby Euless, Texas, arrived at TCU in the spring after transferring from BYU. He will have three years of eligibility with the Horned Frogs. James Fry (6-3, 290, Jr.) is slated to take over the center duties for TCU. He lettered in a back-up role to Rimington Trophy winner Jake Kirkpatrick last season. Pushing Fry will be Eric Tausch (6-3, 295, So.) and Michael Thompson (6-4, 315, RFr.). John Woolridge (6-5, 310, So.) and Ty Horn (6-5, 320, So.) are promising young players in second-team positions at right guard and right tackle, respectively.

2011 SEASON PREVIEW

HORNED FROG DEFENSE/SPECIAL TEAMS

TCU returns six defensive starters, including first-team All-American and Rose Bowl Defensive Most Valuable Player Tank Carder, from last year's top-ranked unit. Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, TCU has led the nation in total defense (five times) more than any other team. All five of those No. 1 rankings have come in the last 11 seasons. TCU is just the third team in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons (2008-10).

STANSLY MAPONGA

TANK CARDER

GREG MCCOY

DEFENSIVE LINE

Defensive tackle D.J. Yendrey (6-4, 273, Jr.), an All-Mountain West Conference selection last season, and Stansly Maponga (6-2, 265, So.), a 2010 Freshman All-American, anchor the defensive line for the Horned Frogs. Yendrey, a converted defensive end, ran the first leg in the 4x100 relay for his Edna High School track and field team. His three sacks last season tied for fourth on TCU, while his five career sacks top all active Horned Frogs. Backing up Yendrey is David Johnson (6-2, 270, RFr.), an early enrollee a year ago who redshirted last fall. In his first season of action, Maponga more than capably filled the left defensive end position previously occupied by two-time consensus first-team All-American Jerry Hughes. Maponga had three tackles for loss, including 2 ½ sacks, among his 32 stops. Ross Forrest (6-4, 265, Jr.) and Cliff Murphy (6-4, 260, RFr.) are in second- and third-team positions behind Maponga. Forrest is a two-year letterman who originally came to TCU as a walk-on. He made one start last season, while Murphy was a redshirt. Braylon Broughton (6-6, 272, Sr.), a three-year letterman, enters the fall as the starter at right end. Broughton had a pair of tackles for loss among 11 stops a year ago. He has shown steady improvement each year in the program. Matt Anderson (6-3, 245, So.) and Jon Koontz (6-2, 230, So.) are listed behind Broughton. Anderson, who has a very bright future, saw action as a true freshman before suffering a season-ending injury. He's the latest in a long line of former high school tailbacks to become a defensive end at TCU. As a senior at Industrial High School in Vanderbilt, Texas, Anderson averaged 14.1 yards per carry. Koontz is a local player from Aledo High School. After lettering in a reserve role the last two seasons, Jeremy Coleman (6-2, 290, Jr.) is the projected starter at nose tackle. He made an immediate impact at TCU as a freshman in 2009 with a sack at Virginia in his first collegiate game. Ray Burns (6-1, 290, So.) is in a second-team position behind Coleman.

LINEBACKER

Both starting linebackers in TCU's 4-2-5 defensive scheme return after All-America seasons a year ago. In fact, the entire linebacker unit is back. Tank Carder (6-3, 237, Sr.) was a first-team All-American and the Rose Bowl Defensive Most Valuable Player, while Tanner Brock (6-3, 250, Jr.) led TCU in tackles and earned third-team All-America accolades. Carder had arguably the most-famous play in TCU football history when he batted down a 2-point pass by Wisconsin with two minutes to play to preserve the Horned Frogs' 21-19 Rose Bowl victory. He added six tackles in the game, including three for loss with a sack. Carder, in his third year as a starter, is one of TCU's team leaders. He totaled 60 stops last season with 9 ½ tackles for loss, including 3 ½ sacks. The Sweeny, Texas, native added five pass breakups, an interception and fumble recovery. Brock's 106 tackles were 26 more than the next-closest Horned Frog. He recorded four games with double-digit stops, including a career-high 12 tackles in the 47-7 win at Utah. Brock also had an interception and 57-yard return against the Utes. Kris Gardner (6-1, 238, Sr.), Kenny Cain (6-1, 210, Jr.) and Greg Burks (6-1, 222, Jr.) are veterans who add depth at linebacker while also being major contributors on special teams. Deryck Gildon (6-2, 215, Fr.) was an early enrollee who had an impressive spring and will push for playing time as a true freshman.

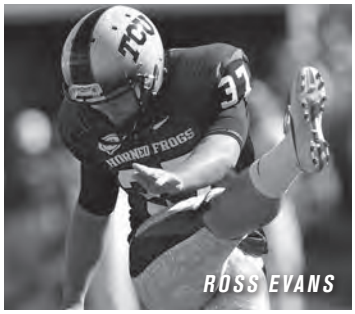
CORNERBACK

Greg McCoy (5-10, 181, Sr.) is a returning starter, while Travaras Battle (6-0, 180, So.) is the projected starter at the other corner. McCoy totaled 30 tackles, six pass breakups and two interceptions in his first year as a starter. One of the fastest Horned Frogs on the roster, the Dallas native is also utilized on kickoff returns. McCoy will be backed up by Kevin White (5-10, 174, RFr.), a 2010 redshirt from Round Rock, Texas. Battle lettered as a true freshman after being an early enrollee last spring. He was also one of TCU's leaders in special teams tackles. Behind Battle on the depth chart is newcomer Jason Verrett (5-10, 180, So.), a Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College transfer who participated in spring practice and will have three seasons of eligibility at TCU. Verrett was ranked by Rivals.com as the sixth-best JC transfer at cornerback and the 35th-best overall prospect.

TEKERREIN CUBA

JOHNNY FOBBS

ANSON KELTON



ROSS EVANS

SAFETY

At weak safety, Tekerrein Cuba (6-4, 210, Sr.) is the lone returning starter among a group of safeties that includes some recent position switches. A senior from Tyler, Texas, Cuba was fifth on the team last season with 49 tackles, including a career-high 12 stops in a 45-0 win over Wyoming. Jonathan Anderson (6-3, 208, RFr.) and Antonio Graves (6-2, 215, RFr.) are 2010 redshirts behind Cuba on the depth chart. Johnny Fobbs (6-1, 203, Sr.) and Trent Thomas (5-11, 190, So.) enter the spring in first-team positions at free and strong safety, respectively. Fobbs, a local product from Everman, Texas, is a three-year letterman. He totaled seven tackles in a reserve role last season while also contributing on special teams. Thomas saw action in three games. Elisha Olabode (5-10, 182, So.), who lettered at cornerback as a true freshman, will open the fall in a second-team position at free safety. Olabode recorded nine stops last year. Converted quarterback Sam Carter (6-1, 220, RFr.) is behind Thomas at strong safety. Carter was ranked by Rivals.com as a top-25 dual-threat quarterback in the nation coming out of Hastings High School in Alief, Texas.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Placekicker Ross Evans (5-9, 185, Sr.) and punter Anson Kelton (6-4, 280, Sr.) will both be in their fourth year as starters. Evans was 11-of-13 on field goals last season and is 42-of-51 (82.4 percent) in his career. He is TCU's all-time leader in both extra points made (178) and attempted (191). Kelton was an unsung hero in the Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin. He twice pinned the Badgers inside their 5-yard line and was instrumental in Wisconsin having an average starting field position at its own 20. Over the last two seasons, Kelton has placed 36 punts inside the opponent 20 with just five touchbacks. He had a career-best 41.6 average in 2010. Daniel Shelley (6-1, 228, Jr.) had a strong year in his first season as TCU's deep snapper. The position has a strong tradition as the Horned Frogs' previous two snappers both went on to the National Football League. Greg McCoy (5-10, 181, Sr.) and Skye Dawson (5-10, 175, Jr.) provide TCU with great speed on punt and kickoff returns as well as being arguably the fastest two players on the team. McCoy averaged 33.4 yards on kickoff returns last year after setting a TCU single-season record with a 35.9 mark in 2009. Included in that average was an 81-yard touchdown at Wyoming. Dawson is a Mountain West Conference track and field champion in the 60 meters. He returned three kickoffs last season for a 29.0 average with a long of 44 yards versus San Diego State.

GARY PATTERSON

HEAD COACH
KANSAS STATE, 1983

11TH SEASON AS TCU HEAD COACH
14TH SEASON OVERALL AT TCU

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

In 2010, Patterson guided the Horned Frogs to an undefeated season and Rose Bowl championship. TCU finished second in the final polls with a 13-0 record, its first perfect campaign since winning the national championship in 1938.

The Frogs are the only team in the nation to be ranked in the season-ending top 10 in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls over the last three years. TCU has finished in the top 10 four times in the past six seasons, and its average final ranking of No. 5 over the last three seasons ranks first nationally. The squad has posted a 25-1 record over the last two seasons and is 36-3 since 2008.

With 98 wins, Patterson is just 12 victories shy of becoming TCU football's all-time winningest coach. The current mark of 109 is held by Dutch Meyer, who led the Horned Frogs to their national championships in 1935 and 1938. Patterson's .778 winning percentage (98-28) is third among active coaches nationally with a minimum of five years experience.

Patterson was named American Football Monthly's 2010 Coach of the Year as he led TCU to its second straight BCS game. Other recent honors for Patterson include the Exchange Club of Fort Worth recognizing him as Fort Worth's Outstanding Citizen for 2010, while the National Football Foundation's Gridiron Club of Dallas selected him for its 2011 Distinguished Texan Award.

Patterson also received the 2010 TCU Chancellor's Staff Award for Outstanding Service.

Patterson was named American Football Monthly's 2010 Coach of the Year as he led TCU to its second straight BCS game. The team's success on the gridiron is also mirrored in the classroom for his players. In each of the last three seasons, the Frogs have been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) as one of the nation's leaders in its graduation rate for student-athletes. TCU is also one of just four programs to finish in the top 25 in the final 2010 polls and in the Academic Progress Rate (APR).

Patterson has also been active in the community and an integral part of the fundraising efforts which have seen upgrades in TCU's athletics facilities.

In 2009, Patterson was selected for nine national coaching honors after leading TCU to a 12-1 record, No. 6 ranking and Fiesta Bowl appearance.

Patterson was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, AP, American Football Coaches Association and Sporting News while also receiving the Bobby Dodd Award, Eddie Robinson Award, Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, George Munger Award and Woody Hayes Award.

Despite losing two starters in the first two rounds of the National Football League draft and a pair of four-year starters at cornerback, TCU topped the nation in total defense in 2010. The Horned Frogs became just the third program in NCAA history to finish first in that category in three straight seasons.

Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, no other school has finished first in total defense as many times (five) as TCU. All five of those No. 1 rankings (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009, 2010) have come in the last 11 seasons under Patterson.
The dean of Mountain West Conference coaches, Patterson has led TCU to at least 10 wins seven times in the last nine years, including six 11-win seasons since 2003. No other coach in TCU history has more than two 10-win campaigns.

The Frogs have won six conference titles with Patterson on staff in addition to posting eight of the school's 12 10-win seasons. He was TCU's defensive coordinator from 1998-00.

During his 13 years on campus, Patterson has seen TCU make 12 bowl appearances. From 2005-08, Patterson led the Frogs to four straight bowl victories for the first time in school history. During that stretch, TCU was one of just seven schools nationally to have a current bowl winning streak of at least four in a row.

TCU is 8-4 in bowl games with Patterson on its coaching staff and 6-4 with him as head coach. Prior to Patterson's arrival on campus in 1998, the Frogs had just four bowl wins in their history.

The Frogs are 16-3 in their last 19 games against teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids, including a 6-3 versus the Big 12 and 4-0 record against the Pac-10.

In 10 seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 130 All-Conference selections, 13 first-team All-Americans, 13 Freshman All-Americans and two Academic All-Americans. Twenty-nine Frogs have been selected in the NFL Draft with a total of 53 in NFL camps.

In five of its first six seasons in the Mountain West, TCU has set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Frogs had a school-record 20 selections in 2009, 18 in 2005 and 2008, 17 in 2010, 14 in 2006 and 11 in 2007.

The No. 6 spot in the polls in 2009 was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1955, when it was also sixth. The Frogs had their first undefeated regular season since their 1938 national championship campaign.

Despite losing seven starters to graduation, including three to the NFL, off 2008's No. 1 defense, the Frogs led the nation in 2009 by allowing just 239.7 yards per game.

TCU and Florida were the only schools in 2009 to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense and defense. The Frogs were seventh offensively at 456.7 yards per game.

In 2008, Patterson was one of 15 semifinalists for the George Munger National Coach of the Year Award by the Maxwell Football Club. He was also named to the Paul "Bear" Bryant Watch List for the College Football Coach of the Year.

Patterson guided TCU to an 11-2 record and a No. 7 ranking in the final AP and USA Today polls. It was the Frogs' highest season-ending appearance in the polls since 1959. Included in the win total were victories over then-undefeated, top-10 teams BYU and Boise State. It was the first time since 1961 that TCU beat two top-10 opponents in the same season.

TCU led the nation in total defense (217.8 yards per game) in 2008 for the third time in nine seasons. No other school in the country has finished first in that category as many times as TCU in that span. The Frogs were also first in run defense (47.1 yards), fewest first downs allowed per game (12.1) and time of possession (35:10). TCU was second in scoring defense (11.3 points per game).

Patterson became the fastest TCU coach to reach 50 victories (70 games) with a 27-21 win at New Mexico on Nov. 11, 2006.

Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was a 2003 finalist for Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors. He also appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game).

The Frogs' eight consecutive wins were by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson led the Frogs to the Mountain West championship in their first season of league play. It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years. The squad recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) since 1938.

The Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the coaches' poll and 11th in the AP poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959.

TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MWC polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against a foe ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

The 2005 Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

Setting the pace nationally in defensive categories is nothing new for Patterson. His teams also led the country in defense during the 2000 and 2002 campaigns. In 2002, the Frogs allowed only 64.8 rushing yards per game - ranking first in that category as well.

TCU has been no stranger to the post-season in the Patterson era. The Frogs have emerged victorious seven times in their run of 12 bowl games in 13 seasons.

In his first full season as head coach with the Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in the 2002 season earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press poll.

Eleven of Patterson's career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at that time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the AP poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors. He was also named an assistant coach for the Hula Bowl.

TCU HEAD COACH GARY PATTERSON

In 2004, the Frogs finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring offense, passing offense and total offense. The Patterson chapter of TCU football, however, has been dominated by a tradition of defense. Since 1999, the Frogs have been ranked in the top five nationally in total defense four times.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns, intercepted 12 passes and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

Patterson's 1999 TCU defense ended the season ranked fifth in the country in total defense. In 2000, the Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. Patterson was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico. The Lobos collected 22 total takeaways and three defensive touchdowns in 1996. The next year, in Patterson style, New Mexico improved their total takeaways to 29, including 16 interceptions.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 15 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other 12 have come at TCU. Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh, Cade and Blake.

TCU ASSISTANT COACHES

JARRETT ANDERSON

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ RUNNING BACKS

14TH SEASON AT TCU
NEW MEXICO, 1993

After coming to TCU as a graduate assistant, Jarrett Anderson is in his 14th year overall with the Frogs.

In February 2009, Anderson was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He also became the running backs coach after serving as wide receivers coach the previous eight seasons.

In both of Anderson's first two seasons as a coordinator, TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored and first downs while also ranking among the nation's most productive units. The Horned Frogs won 25 of 26 games and made back-to-back BCS appearances, including winning the 2011 Rose Bowl.

In 2010, Anderson helped direct TCU to single-season school marks in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). The Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game).

As a sophomore in 2010, Ed Wesley ran for 1,078 yards to become TCU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2003. He was a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection and one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

Wesley and fellow tailbacks Matthew Tucker and Waymon James all recorded 100-yard games in the 2010 campaign.

In 2009, the Horned Frogs established previous single-season school marks for points scored (498), total offense (5,937 yards), touchdowns (65) and first downs (311).

TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Anderson helped mentor Tucker and Wesley into being the Frogs' second- and third-leading rushers with 676 and 638 yards, respectively. Those totals represented the fifth- and sixth-best rushing totals by a freshman in TCU history.

In 2008, Jimmy Young became the first TCU wide receiver to be named All-Mountain West Conference. Young had 988 yards receiving to narrowly miss just the second 1,000-yard season in TCU history. His 59 receptions tied for the fourth-best total on the Frogs' single-season chart.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in eight years were drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006. Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became TCU's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003. During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons: Aidan and Eli.

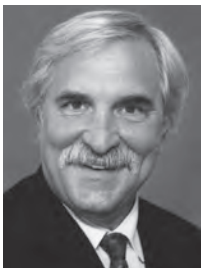
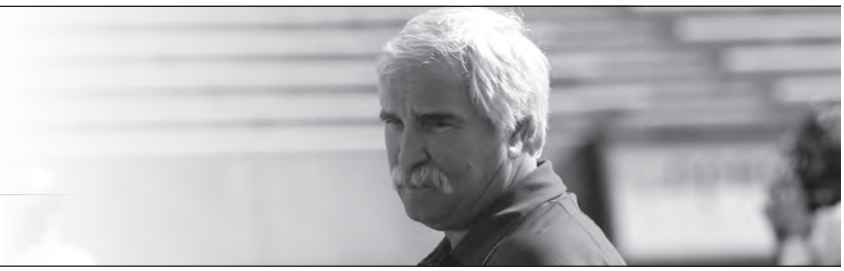
TCU ASSISTANT COACHES



DICK BUMPAS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE LINE

8TH SEASON AT TCU
ARKANSAS, 1973



Dick Bumpas joined TCU in February 2004 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Bumpas first teamed with Patterson at Kansas State in the early 1980s. He was the Wildcats' defensive line coach in 1981 when Patterson was a senior linebacker. Patterson then became a KSU graduate assistant in 1982 and joined Bumpas on staff. The duo then worked together the next two seasons (1983-84) at Tennessee Tech.Bumpas and Patterson reunited at Utah State from 1992-94 and at Navy in 1995. At both places, Bumpas was the defensive coordinator while Patterson was the secondary coach.

In 2010, Bumpas was a finalist for the Broyles Award, recognizing the nation's top assistant coach, for the third consecutive season. He has been a finalist for the honor four times in his career. TCU topped the country in 2010 in total defense (228.51 ypg), for the third straight season. Bumpas had an All-American on all three levels of his starting lineup in defensive end Wayne Daniels, linebacker Tank Carder and safety Tejay Johnson.

Bumpas mentored Horned Frog defensive end Jerry Hughes into being a two-time consensus All-American and the 2009 recipient of the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy. Hughes was also a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award.

In 2008, TCU led the nation in total defense (217.8 yards per game), run defense (47.1 yards per game) and fewest first downs allowed per game (12.1) while placing second in scoring defense (11.3 points per game) and sacks (43) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (97.9). All four of TCU's starting defensive linemen in 2008 were named All-MWC. In addition to Hughes being a first-team selection, seniors Cody Moore and defensive end Matt Panfil enjoyed their best seasons in 2008 and were both second-team picks. Defensive tackle James Vess was an honorable-mention choice.

In a coaching career that has spanned 30 years, Bumpas has won championships in four different conferences and coached at all three service academies. He has also coached in 16 bowl games.

Bumpas came to TCU after serving as Western Michigan's defensive coordinator for one season.

Bumpas worked at the University of Houston from 1999-02, serving as assistant head coach and linebackers coach and later as co-defensive coordinator, installing the 4-2-5 defense in his initial season. In 2001, Bumpas coached Wayne Rogers, the Conference USA Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his stint at Houston, Bumpas worked four seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. His 1997 Navy unit ranked sixth in total defense and turnover margin. At season's end, he was invited to coach in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game.

Bumpas spent three seasons (1992-94) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Utah State, helping the Aggies to a 1993 Big West Championship and a Las Vegas Bowl victory over Ball State. Other coaching stops include two seasons as defensive line coach at Notre Dame (1990-91), during which time he mentored 1990 Lombardi Award winner Chris Zorich. In 1989, Bumpas coached the defensive line at his alma mater, Arkansas, a team that went on to win a Southwest Conference title and advanced to the 1990 Cotton Bowl.

Bumpas coached seven years in the Volunteer state, splitting time between the University of Tennessee (1985-89) as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator and Tennessee Tech (1983-84) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. While with the Vols, Bumpas coached three bowl championship teams (1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach) and was part of the Southeastern Conference championship in 1985.

Bumpas began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1977. From there, he went to the U.S. Military Academy and implemented a new defense under Homer Smith in 1978. Installing new defenses would become a trend for Bumpas, who did the same thing as defensive line coach at the Air Force Academy during a two-year tenure (1979-80) with the Falcons.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas received three varsity letters and was a captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a Bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973. He went on to play tight end and linebacker professionally for the Memphis Southmen in the World Football League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. Bumpas was a 2006 inductee into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor.

Bumpas is married to the former Gloria Surratt.

TCU ASSISTANT COACHES

RUSTY BURNS

WIDE RECEIVERS

3RD SEASON AT TCU
SPRINGFIELD, 1978

Rusty Burns joined the TCU staff as wide receivers coach in February 2009.

In both his seasons with the Horned Frogs, TCU has set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored, total offense and first downs.

In 2010, Burns tutored Jeremy Kerley to a career-high 56 receptions, helping him become the 13th player in program history with at least 50 grabs in a season. Kerley also tied Mike Renfro's 1977 TCU record with 10 touchdown catches.

Kerley, a fifth-round draft pick of the New York Jets, and Jimmy Young received All-Mountain West Conference honors.

Josh Boyce exploded onto the scene in 2010, pacing all TCU receivers with 646 receiving yards in being named a Freshman All-American. His 34 receptions, the most by a Horned Frog rookie since Cory Rodgers (37) in 2003, and six touchdown catches were both second on the team.

In his first season with the Horned Frogs, four of TCU's top-six receivers posted reception totals that surpassed their career totals entering the season. Three TCU receivers, Kerley, Antoine Hicks and Jimmy Young, were named All-MWC, while Ryan Christian continued his career professionally with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Burns spent four seasons (2004-07) as the offensive coordinator at SMU. The Mustangs set a school record with 29 touchdown passes in 2006, while their 325 points scored ranked third all-time in SMU history.

Burns has also been an offensive coordinator at Cincinnati (2002-03), Wyoming (1999-01), Memphis (1996-98) and Connecticut (1980-88).

At Cincinnati, Burns directed a record-setting offensive attack in 2002 that helped lead the Bearcats to the Conference USA championship. Cincinnati set school marks for passing yards (3,649 yards), total offense (5,565 yards) and points (409). The Bearcats led C-USA in passing (260.6) and total offense (397.5) per game.

It was Burns' second stint at Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' quarterbacks coach from 1989-91. Burns also served three seasons (1992-94) as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

In his final year at Wyoming, Burns had the most improved offense in the Mountain West Conference.

Burns is a 1978 graduate of Springfield College, where he played quarterback. He also has a master's degree from Springfield. His first coaching position came at his alma mater as he served two seasons as offensive coordinator upon his graduation.

Burns and his wife, Debra, have two daughters: Kelly and Kirsten.

JUSTIN FUENTE

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

5TH SEASON AT TCU
MURRAY STATE, 1999

Justin Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February 2007 as running backs coach and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in February 2009. As part of his new duties, he moved from running backs to quarterbacks coach.

In both of Fuente's first two seasons as a coordinator, TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored and first downs while also ranking among the nation's most productive units. The Horned Frogs won 25 of 26 games and made back-to-back BCS appearances, including winning the 2011 Rose Bowl.

In 2010, Fuente helped direct TCU to single-season school marks in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). The Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game).

Under Fuente's tutelage, quarterback Andy Dalton became TCU's career leader in every major passing record. The 2011 second-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals also set Mountain West Conference all-time marks for total offense (11,925 yards) and plays from scrimmage (1,730).

Dalton, a two-time MWC Offensive Player of the Year and three-time bowl game most valuable player, finished ninth in 2010 Heisman Trophy voting. He was a finalist for the Manning Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Bobby Bowden Award, while being a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award and Maxwell Award.

In his first season as co-offensive coordinator, Fuente helped direct a record-setting 2009 TCU attack that established then-season school marks for points scored, total offense, touchdowns and first downs. TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

With Fuente as running backs coach in 2008, the Horned Frogs defined running back by committee. TCU ranked 12th nationally in rushing despite not having a player in the top-96 individually. TCU's 220.2 yards per game rushing was its highest mark since 2000. Fuente coached tailback Aaron Brown into being a sixth-round selection by the Detroit Lions in the 2009 NFL draft.

Fuente came to TCU after spending the previous six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. His final three years saw him double as offensive coordinator.

Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense in 2005 and 2006. The Redbirds placed eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbird quarterback Luke Drone to first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards) and total offense (231.6 yards). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record in rushing (1,743 yards).

Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under former TCU quarterbacks coach and then-Sooners offensive coordinator Dick Winder. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He transferred to Murray State for his final two years.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. He was the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given to the nation's top Division I-AA player.

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League. A 1999 graduate of Murray State, Fuente is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Fuente and his wife, Jenny, have a daughter: Cecilia Mae.

TREY HAVERTY

SAFETIES

1ST SEASON AT TCU
TEXAS TECH, 2004

Trey Haverty returned to TCU as safeties coach in February 2011.

Haverty was the defensive coordinator at Millsaps College in 2010.

Haverty formerly served as a TCU graduate assistant, working with head coach Gary Patterson and the defense, for three seasons (2007-09). The 2008 and 2009 campaigns saw the Horned Frogs lead the nation in total defense.

TCU was 23-3 in Haverty's final two seasons with the Horned Frogs. The 2009 campaign saw TCU make its first BCS appearance with a trip to the Fiesta Bowl.

Haverty first arrived at TCU after serving as wide receivers coach at Cisco Junior College in 2006. His first coaching position was at Midlothian High School in 2005.

During his playing days, Haverty was an All-America wide receiver at Texas Tech.

As a senior for the Red Raiders in 2004, Haverty led the Big 12 in receptions (77) while placing second in receiving yards (1,019). He was a second-team All-American by Sports Illustrated and a third-team Associated Press pick.

In his final collegiate game, he had eight receptions for 147 yards in a 45-31 Holiday Bowl victory over California.

Haverty had 110 receptions for 1,326 yards and seven touchdowns in his Texas Tech career (2001-04).

Haverty and his wife, Christy, were married in Summer 2011.

CLAY JENNINGS

CORNERBACKS

4TH SEASON AT TCU
NORTH TEXAS, 1996

Clay Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2008.

In all three of his seasons with the Horned Frogs, TCU has led the nation in total defense.

Jason Teague was a 2010 second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection, giving TCU four All-MWC honorees in the last three seasons.

Both Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders were first-team All-MWC picks in 2009. Priest was ranked by Rivals.com as the nation's sixth-best cornerback, while Sanders was tabbed by Sporting News as the MWC's hardest hitter.

Jennings, who has coached six current NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor in 2007.

Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-league honors and Kenneth Fontennette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana-Lafayette, Jennings tutored current NFL players C.C. Brown (Detroit Lions) and Michael Adams (Arizona Cardinals), as well as former New England Patriot Antwain Spann.

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fifth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux of the Seattle Seahawks. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

Jennings is a 1992 graduate of Waco's La Vega High School and a 1996 North Texas alumnus (bachelor's of science in kinesiology). Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

TCU ASSISTANT COACHES

DAN SHARP

TIGHT ENDS/ SPECIAL TEAMS

11TH SEASON AT TCU
TCU, 1985

One of the more popular players to ever don the Purple and White, Dan Sharp is in his 11th year during his second stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater. He doubles as the tight ends and special teams coach.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to campus in 2001 as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He previously coached nine seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

Under Sharp's tutelage in 2010, Jeremy Kerley was named the Mountain West Conference Special Teams Player of the Year. TCU has had the first-team All-MWC return specialist all six seasons it has been in the league (Kerley, 2008-10; Brian Bonner, 2006-07; Cory Rodgers, 2005). Kerley, a first-team All-American and one of three finalists for the Paul Hornung Award, also became a 2011 fifth-round draft pick of the New York Jets.

TCU topped the nation in 2009 in kickoff return average with a 29.2-yard mark. The Horned Frogs led the Mountain West Conference in kickoff and punt returns as they had three special teams touchdowns. Kerley returned two punts for scores and received All-America honors as a return specialist, while Greg McCoy returned a kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown en route to setting a single-season TCU record with a 35.9-yard average.

Sharp also coached first-team All-MWC placekicker Ross Evans, who was 15-of-18 on field-goal attempts while setting a single-season TCU record with 61 extra-points made. In 2008, Sharp mentored the freshman kicking duo of Evans and punter Anson Kelton.

Kelton earned All-Mountain West Conference honors as 30 of his 54 punts (55.6 percent) were placed inside the opponent 20 with just seven touchbacks. He had a 41.3 average. Evans made 16-of-20 field goals, including a 50-yard effort on his first collegiate attempt. He was the only freshman among the semifinalists for the 2008 Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker.

Sharp coached TCU placekicker and three-time All-Mountain West Conference selection Chris Manfredini to a 47-of-54 mark on field goals in three seasons (2005-07). Additionally, punter Derek Wash was an honorable-mention All-MWC choice in 2007 with a 42.5 average.

Placekicker Nick Browne and punter Joey Biasatti were semifinalists for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Awards, respectively, during the 2002 campaign. Browne earned All-America honors and was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

In the last four seasons, three tight ends (Chad Andrus, Brent Hecht, Shae Reagan) have been inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society for academic excellence.

Under Sharp's leadership, Matt Schobel was the second pick in the third round of the 2002 National Football League draft and the 67th player selected overall. In 2004, Cody McCarty garnered first-team all-league honors.

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which went 8-3 and earned a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running game, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns. He spent two years in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to TCU in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two daughters: Alexandra and Andrea.

TONY TADEMY

LINEBACKERS

7TH SEASON AT TCU
LOUISIANA TECH, 1983

Tony Tademy joined the TCU football staff in June 2005.

The play of the linebackers have been instrumental in the Horned Frogs leading the nation in total defense each of the last three seasons. Tademy has coached at least two All-Mountain West Conference selections in each of his six years at TCU. Four Horned Frog linebackers in the last four seasons are active in the National Football League.

Daryl Washington was a 2010 second-round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals, while David Hawthorne has been the Seattle Seahawks' leading tackler the last two seasons. In 2008, Jason Phillips and Robert Henson were both first-team All-MWC and NFL draft selections. Phillips was taken in the fifth round by the Baltimore Ravens, while Henson was a sixth-round choice by the Washington Redskins.

In 2010, Tank Carder was a first-team All-American, the Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year and the Rose Bowl's Defensive Most Valuable Player. Fellow linebacker Tanner Brock led TCU with 106 tackles as he garnered first-team MWC accolades in his first year in the starting lineup.

The 2009 campaign saw Washington and Carder, in their first season as starters, earn first- and second-team All-MWC honors, respectively. Washington was named to four All-America teams in addition to being a Butkus Award semifinalist.

Phillips became the first defensive player in MWC history to be a first- or second-team all-conference selection in four consecutive seasons. Henson was an honorable-mention pick his first three years before becoming a first-team honoree as a senior. Phillips was named by Dave Campbell's Texas Football as the state's Best Linebacker in 2007, while Hawthorne, a three-year starter (2005-07), signed a free-agent contract with the Seahawks.

In 2005, Tademy's first season, TCU's top three linebackers featured a pair of redshirt freshmen (Phillips and Henson) and a sophomore (Hawthorne). The Frogs were still able to post an 11-1 record with a defensive unit that led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). Phillips became the first freshman defensive player in MWC history to be named first- or second-team all-conference. He was also a Freshman All-American.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Tademy spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at McKinney (Texas) High School.

Tademy has been in the coaching profession since earning his bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana Tech in 1983. While an undergrad, he played linebacker and helped the Bulldogs to a pair of Independence Bowl appearances.

Tademy's first full-time assistant coaching stint came at VMI from 1985-86 when current TCU assistant head coach and offensive line coach Eddie Williamson was the Keydets' head coach. Tademy coached the 1987 season at Louisiana Tech, serving as the inside linebackers coach. He later became the offensive line and specialists coach at Howard University, where he also coached linebackers and was the recruiting coordinator.

Tademy spent three seasons (1994-96) at the University of Houston, working with the defensive ends under coach Kim Helton and helping the Cougars to the 1996 Liberty Bowl.

Tademy returned to the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High School from 1997-98, before taking over as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1999-01. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Blinn College before becoming the defensive coordinator at McKinney in 2003.

A Jacksonville, Ark., native, Tademy and his wife, Maria, have two sons: A.J. and Victor.

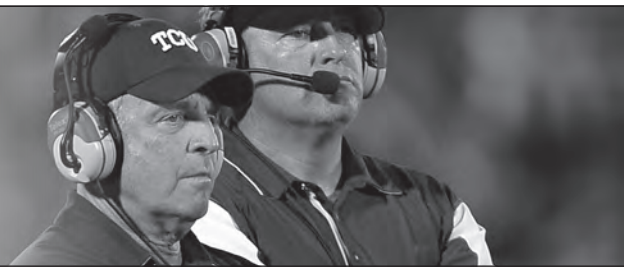
TCU ASSISTANT COACHES

EDDIE WILLIAMSON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ OFFENSIVE LINE

11TH SEASON AT TCU
DAVIDSON, 1974



A veteran of the college coaching ranks, Eddie Williamson is in his 11th season at TCU as the offensive line coach. He was given the title of assistant head coach in 2002.

Williamson has coached 16 All-Mountain West Conference selections over the last six seasons. Five of his former TCU linemen are active in the National Football League.

In 2010, Williamson's offensive line helped TCU set single-season school records in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). TCU ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game). The Horned Frogs also tied for fifth in fewest sacks allowed, surrendering just nine in 13 contests (0.7 per game).

Center Jake Kirkpatrick was a first-team All-America selection and the 2010 recipient of the Rimington Trophy, recognizing the nation's top center. Kirkpatrick joined Marcus Cannon, a 2011 fifth-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, on the All-MWC first team. Cannon was also named to multiple All-America squads.

Three of TCU's five starters received postseason accolades in 2009, including first-team All-MWC tackles Cannon and Marshall Newhouse. Newhouse was drafted in the fifth round by the Green Bay Packers. Kirkpatrick received first-team All-America honors and was one of six finalists for the Rimington Award.

The 2009 TCU offensive line ranked sixth nationally in allowing only 12 sacks (0.9 per game). The Horned Frogs established single-season school marks for points scored (498), total offense (5,937 yards) and first downs (311). TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

In 2008, center Blake Schlueter was a first-team All-MWC pick and a seventh-round draft pick of the Denver Broncos. Newhouse and Cannon earned second-team and honorable-mention honors, respectively. They helped TCU lead the nation in time of possession (35:10) while setting then-school records for points scored (437) and touchdowns (56).

Tackle Herb Taylor was a two-time first-team All-MWC selection (2005-06) before the Kansas City Chiefs made him a sixth-round draft pick. Michael Toudouze, also a tackle, was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts. He earned a Super Bowl championship as a rookie and was also on the Colts' roster during their 2009 Super Bowl run. Anthony Alabi was a fifth-round pick of the Miami Dolphins in 2005.

With four new starters on the offensive line in 2006, TCU allowed just 13 sacks. It was the lowest total in the MWC and tied for the sixth-best mark nationally. In 2005, with three new starters, the Frogs surrendered the league's second-fewest sacks.

Williamson came to TCU from Wake Forest, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He joined the WFU staff in January 2000. Williamson also served as an assistant coach at Texas Southern, Baylor, North Carolina, Wake Forest, South Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Furman.

Williamson also has experience as a head coach, serving in that role at VMI from 1985-88.

A part of 16 bowl teams, Williamson's college coaching career began soon after graduating from Davidson College in 1974.

A native of Pendleton, S.C., Williamson was a standout linebacker at Davidson (1971-73). He graduated in 1974 and went on to earn his master's degree from Furman in 1976.

Williamson and his wife, Patty, have three children: Eddie III, Carrie Beth and Tricia. The Williamsons also have two grandchildren.

11TH SEASON AT TCU
UTEP, 1987

Don Sommer is in his 11th year as TCU's head strength and conditioning coach after arriving on campus in January 2001. He was named the 2008 National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by footballscoop.com.

In his capacity, Sommer is responsible for the overall direction, design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all 20 sports at TCU.

In the 2005-06 athletics season, TCU led the nation with five football players and a total of 10 student-athletes receiving All-America honors from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Sommer came to TCU after serving in a similar capacity at the University of Missouri for two years. He had been part of the Tiger program since 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant for two years before assuming the assistant strength and conditioning coaching post in 1991.

Sommer was one of 10 individuals to receive the prestigious certification of "Master Strength & Conditioning Coach" at the 2003 Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) national conference. He joined the existing 26 Master Strength & Conditioning Coaches, bringing the total number of MSCCs in the world to 36 at the time of his certification.

Sommer is a graduate of the University of Texas-El Paso with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a four-year letterman and starter for the Miners' football squad before playing professionally with the Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts. Sommer returned to the classroom following his playing career and earned his master's degree in health education from Missouri.

Sommer and his wife, Cindy, have two children: Dayne and Kaylin.

DAVID GABLE
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

9TH SEASON AT TCU
NEBRASKA, 1993

David Gable is in his ninth season as head football trainer at TCU. Gable was promoted to Associate Director of Sports Medicine in Summer 2007.

In addition to his primary responsibility with the TCU football team, Gable's additional duties include managing the Walsh Sports Medicine Complex, inventory control and purchasing for the athletic training/sports medicine area, general administrative duties and teaching within the CAATE Approved Athletic Training Education Program in TCU's Department of Kinesiology.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Gable spent several years working at the HealthSouth Sports Medicine Clinic in Birmingham, Ala. Gable also has professional football experience with the Carolina Panthers and Kansas City Chiefs (NFL), the Florida Bobcats (Arena 1), the Birmingham Steeldogs (Arena 2), the Birmingham Thunderbolts (XFL) and the Rhein Fire (NFL Europe). In three years with Rhein, Gable worked with two championship teams.

Gable, a native of Gering, Neb., received his bachelor's degree in education with an emphasis in athletic training from Nebraska in 1993 and his master's in physical education/health and sports sciences from Ohio in 1994. He and his wife, Samantha, have two children: Kylee and Kamryn.

MATT LEWIS
ASSISTANT A.D. FOR EQUIPMENT SERVICES

8TH SEASON AT TCU
MARSHALL, 1996

Matt Lewis is in his ninth season as TCU's equipment manager. His duties include maintenance, outfitting student-athletes and the inventory and requisitioning of various Horned Frog athletic equipment.

Lewis serves as the Associate Executive Director of the American Equipment Managers of America. He was recognized with the AEMA's Glenn Sharp Award, which is the organization's top honor, in 2010.

TCU marks Lewis's fourth stop as an equipment manager. Most recently, he served as an assistant equipment manager in charge of football at Wake Forest for one year before joining the Iowa State athletics staff as the head equipment manager in July 2000.

Lewis received his bachelor's degree in sports management and marketing from Marshall in 1996, where he worked with the Thundering Herd football program as head equipment manager from 1995-99.

A native of Scott Depot, W.Va., Lewis is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA). He has served on the AEMA Board of Directors as a district director. He and his wife, Stefanie, have two daughters: Madison and Jordyn.

TCU SUPPORT STAFF

JEREMIAH FISCUS
GRADUATE ASSISTANT
OFFENSE

1ST SEASON AS GA, 2ND SEASON OVERALL AT TCU
MCPHERSON, 2008

Jeremiah Fiscus is in his second year overall at TCU and first as the graduate assistant for the Horned Frog offense, assisting Eddie Williamson with the offensive line.

Fiscus arrived at TCU as a video graduate assistant in June 2010. He moved to his current position in May 2011.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Fiscus worked two years at Northwestern State. He was a graduate assistant and assistant offensive line coach in 2008 before becoming the Demons' running backs coach in 2009. He received a masters degree in sports administration from Northwestern State.

A native of Stafford, Kan., Fiscus played two seasons at Dodge City Community College before transferring to McPherson College, where he was a team captain. Fiscus started all four years at center for both schools, giving him a streak of 41 consecutive starts during his collegiate playing career. As a sophomore, he helped lead Dodge City to the Heart of Texas Bowl in Copperas Cove, Texas, against Cisco Junior College.

Fiscus is a 2008 graduate of McPherson with a degree in elementary education. He and his wife, Jessie, were married on July 2, 2011.

RYAN MCINERNEY
GRADUATE ASSISTANT
DEFENSE

1ST SEASON AS GA, 2ND SEASON OVERALL AT TCU
PITTSBURG STATE, 2008

Ryan McInerney is in his first year as the graduate assistant working with the TCU defense and his second season overall with the program. McInerney came to TCU in Spring 2010 as a video graduate assistant.

McInerney is from a football family. His father, Jeff, is the head coach at Central Connecticut State.

Prior to arriving at TCU, McInerney was a defensive graduate assistant at Louisiana-Monroe in the 2009 season. He also has experience as the tight ends coach and graduate assistant at Central Connecticut State. His coaching career began as a varsity defensive and offensive line coach in 2008 at Southeast High School in Cherokee, Kan.

A 2008 graduate of Pittsburg State, McInerney was a four-year letterman at center for the Division II power. McInerney started all seven playoff games, including the 2004 national championship game, for the Guerillas during his time at Pittsburg State. McInerney was born in Troy, Ala., and graduated from Union High School in Tulsa, Okla., the same alma mater as TCU co-offensive coordinator Justin Fuente.

DANIELLE BARTELSTEIN
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

2ND SEASON AT TCU
ILLINOIS, 2006

Danielle Bartelstein joined the TCU football staff in September 2010 as the assistant director of football operations.

In addition to helping coordinate team travel, Bartelstein organizes and maintains the recruiting database while serving as the contact for high schools and junior colleges. She is also the liaison to pro scouts.

Bartelstein came to TCU after serving two years in the football program and athletics department at Stanford. Her myriad of responsibilities included summer camps, video and marketing.

A 2006 Dean's List graduate of Illinois, Bartelstein worked with the Illini's football program as an undergraduate. She assisted with recruiting, camps and administrative duties.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

DR. VICTOR J. BOSCHINI, JR.

CHANCELLOR
9TH YEAR AT TCU

WORKING TO PROVIDE A WORLD-CLASS, VALUES-CENTERED UNIVERSITY EXPERIENCE

Amon G. Carter Stadium, in the process of a massive reconstruction, is just one of the reasons for excitement on the Texas Christian University campus these days. As TCU's Chancellor since 2003, Dr. Victor J. Boschini, Jr., has had the privilege of leading the university through an extraordinary period. TCU has made unprecedented investments in scholarships, facilities and technology, academic programs, and new faculty and staff, all for one purpose: to be a world-class, values-centered university.

This growth is the result of Vision in Action, an inclusive major strategic planning effort Dr. Boschini launched soon after becoming TCU's 10th chancellor. Among the results of Vision in Action have been more than a dozen new facilities and scores of renovations across the campus; a doubling of scholarship dollars awarded to undergraduates; the addition of a substantial number of faculty and instructional positions, including 12 new endowed positions, resulting in smaller classes; and the creation of the John V. Roach Honors College.

On any given day, Chancellor Boschini and his wife, Megan, can be found at a variety of events across campus. They also spend considerable time traveling across the state and country, on behalf of TCU. Both have participated in Frog Camps for new students, including Frog Camp London, Frog Camp Roma and Casa Nueva Frog Camp. The Boschinis also frequently host students, alums, and TCU supporters in their home. In addition, the Chancellor teaches one course every academic year, a freshman seminar in the College of Education.

Chancellor Boschini is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education (ACE). Headquartered in Washington, D.C., ACE serves as the largest and primary voice for colleges and universities across the country, both private and public. Previously he served as chair of the National Association of Independent Colleges & Universities (NAICU), also headquartered in Washington, D.C. That organization represents and advocates in Congress for the interests of private colleges and universities across the nation. In both groups, he has focused on maintaining accessibility for all students to higher education – particularly through federal financial aid programs.

Since TCU is Fort Worth's "home team," the Chancellor takes an active role in as many community ventures as possible. He serves on the board of directors of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and the Van Cliburn Foundation.

Chancellor and Mrs. Boschini have given TCU two Horned Frogs: Elizabeth, Class of 2009, and Mary, Class of 2012. Future Frogs Edward and Margaret attend All Saints Episcopal School in Fort Worth.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

CHRIS DEL CONTE

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS
3RD YEAR AT TCU

SELECTED TO LEAD TCU INTO THE FUTURE AS THE FROGS' SEVENTH DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Chris Del Conte was appointed TCU's athletics director on Oct. 21, 2009.

Since his arrival on campus, the TCU football program has made two straight BCS appearances, including a 21-19 win over Wisconsin in the 2011 Rose Bowl Game. Additionally, the Horned Frog baseball team reached the College World Series and the rifle team won the NCAA national title. In 2009-10, TCU was the only school in the nation to play in a BCS game and win at least one game at the CWS.

Del Conte has overseen a fundraising campaign that has raised $143 million to date over the last year, exceeding the original goal of $105 million, to renovate Amon G. Carter Stadium, TCU's longtime football home. The new stadium will be completely finished in time for the 2012 season. Other recent facility improvements include the expansion of baseball's Lupton Stadium as well as the construction of a new intercollegiate strength and conditioning center scheduled for completion in September 2011. After this fall, work will begin on a new football locker room, training room and equipment room.

Del Conte has helped guide the Horned Frogs into BIG EAST Conference membership effective in the 2012-13 athletics season.

The recipient of the 2010 Bobby Dodd Division I-A Athletic Director's Award, Del Conte was also one of five finalists for the SportsBusiness Journal's Athletic Director of the Year.

Over the last two years, three TCU head coaches (Gary Patterson, football; Jim Schlossnagle, baseball; Karen Monez, rifle) have been named National Coach of the Year. Patterson has received the accolade in each of the last two seasons. Five TCU coaches were named MWC Coach of the Year in their respective sports in 2009-10.

TCU set a single-season school record in 2009-10 with six conference championships (football, men's swimming and diving, women's basketball, men's tennis, women's tennis and baseball). Fifteen of 20 sports were represented in NCAA postseason play and 12 teams were nationally ranked.

The success on the playing field carried over to the classroom. In the Fall 2009 and Spring 2010 semesters, TCU student-athletes recorded their highest cumulative grade-point average since tracking began in 1998. Fifteen of 20 sports had team GPAs over 3.0.

The partnership between TCU, Fort Worth and the Metroplex has never been more evident. Football, baseball, soccer, tennis, track and field and volleyball set single-season attendance marks in 2010-11.

During his tenure at Rice, Del Conte had responsibility for 16 intercollegiate programs, 350 student-athletes, along with coaches and staff. Del Conte also designed, developed and managed the Rice Vision for the Second Century Campaign, which raised over $90 million. He secured significant funds to build athletic facilities such as the Tudor Fieldhouse and Youngkin Center for Student-Athlete Excellence, and also raised $4 million for upgrades to the football stadium. Del Conte also secured a marketing sponsorship and broadcast rights contract for Rice and maintained a focus on student-athlete academic achievement, resulting in numerous public recognition awards from the NCAA for the academic progress rate of student-athletes.

Prior to Rice, Del Conte was the senior associate athletics director for external operations and sports programs at the University of Arizona (2000-06). In that role, Del Conte had responsibility for the planning, management and oversight of the day-to-day operation for the department of intercollegiate athletics. He also functioned as the chief financial officer; managed external operations; had oversight and management of all contracts, ticket sales, broadcast rights fees, corporate sponsorships, and trademarks and licensing; and oversight of all facility construction.

Del Conte also served as an assistant athletics director for external operations at both Washington State (1998-99) and Cal Poly (1994-98).

Del Conte served on the North Texas Super Bowl XLV Host Committee and currently sits on the Davey O'Brien Foundation Board and National Sports Marketing Network Board. His other professional committee involvement and associations include the Division I-A Athletics Directors Association and the National Association of Directors of Athletic Development.

Del Conte received a bachelor's of arts degree in sociology from UC Santa Barbara and a master's of education, administration and supervision from Washington State.

Del Conte is married to Dr. Robin Ward and has two daughters.

WAYNE DANIELS, DE

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) - Andy Dalton ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and No. 6 TCU opened the season with a 30-21 victory over No. 22 Oregon State in the 2010 Cowboys Classic.

Dalton's final touchdown, a 4-yard keeper at the end of the third quarter, put TCU ahead for good. The Frogs' final points, a safety after an errant Oregon State snap inside its own 20-yard line with only 4:14 remaining, put the game out of the Beavers' reach.

Ed Wesley led a potent Frog ground attack with 134 yards rushing on 17 carries. Matthew Tucker added 74 yards on 20 carries, while Dalton accounted for 239 yards of offense, including 64 on the ground.

Dalton became TCU's winningest quarterback, his 30th victory snapping a tie with "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh, who had held the mark alone since the mid-1930s until being matched last year after the Frogs' first undefeated regular season since 1938.

The Frogs know they will likely have to be perfect again in the regular season to break into the BCS again. They survived a difficult opening test against a Pac-10 team that just missed going to the Rose Bowl last season.

Jeremy Kerley tied a career high with six receptions. He caught a 1-yard touchdown to tie the game at 14-all midway through the second quarter, then set up an 8-yard score by Wesley before halftime with a 34-yard punt return.

FORT WORTH (AP) - Matthew Tucker ran for two touchdowns, Andy Dalton threw for a score while setting another TCU record and the Frogs stretched their home winning streak to 15 games with a 62-7 victory over Tennessee Tech.

Dalton tied Max Knake's school record of 622 career completions with his second against the Eagles, a 24-yard TD to Josh Boyce less than 5 minutes into the game to put TCU ahead to stay.

The Frogs were just that much better than Tennessee Tech (0-2), where Patterson earned a master's degree while serving as a graduate assistant from 1983-85.

Matthew Tucker ran for two touchdowns and Andy Dalton threw for a score while setting another TCU record, tying Max Knake's school record of 622 career completions with his second against the Golden Eagles. That was a 24-yard TD to Josh Boyce less than 5 minutes into the game to put TCU ahead to stay.

TCU also shined on defense. Jason Teague returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown at the end of the first quarter for a 21-0 lead, and Alex Ibiloye forced three TTU fumbles, more than any Frog recorded during all of 2009.

FORT WORTH (AP) - Ed Wesley ran 19 times for 165 yards and two touchdowns, Andy Dalton completed 21 of 23 passes for 267 yards with two scores to Jeremy Kerley and No. 4 TCU stretched its home winning streak to 16 games with a 45-10 victory over Baylor.

The Horned Frogs scored touchdowns on their first five drives to build a 35-3 lead and had 335 of their 558 total yards by halftime.

Dalton, whose 91-percent completion rate set single-game TCU and Mountain West records, hit his first 11 passes. His first incompletion didn't come until 4 minutes into the second quarter.

TCU held Baylor, which entered the game averaging 478 yards of total offense per contest, to only 263 yards.

This was only the third meeting between the rival schools less than 90 miles apart since 1995, the last season of the SWC. TCU has won the three games by a combined score of 89-17, and now has a 50-49-7 series lead.

WAYMON JAMES, TB

DALLAS (AP) - No. 4 TCU extended its regular-season winning streak to 17 games with a 41-24 win over SMU.

Playing on the road for the first time this season, the Frogs trailed when TCU's second interception set up a go-ahead SMU touchdown early in the third quarter. Jeremy Kerley responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 83 yards for TCU.

Andy Dalton capped that drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Bart Johnson, then completed a pair of third downs on the way to a 9-yard touchdown run by Waymon James on the next series. Luke Shivers added a 4-yard touchdown run at the start of the fourth quarter to push TCU's lead to 35-17, and Tejay Johnson later capped the scoring by returning a pick 19 yards to the end zone.

The Horned Frogs (4-0) won their seventh straight road game, although this was far from a hostile environment. About a quarter of that record crowd was wearing purple, either folks displaced from the Fort Worth campus or who made the hourlong drive.

Although this was a convincing win, the TCU defense wasn't as dominant as it likes to be. The Horned Frogs allowed their most points, most yards (361), most yards rushing (192) and had their fewest sacks (one).

ROSS EVANS, PK

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Ed Wesley scored twice, TCU's swarming defense forced two fumbles and the fifth-ranked Frogs pulled away in the second half Saturday during a 27-0 win at Colorado State.

The Frogs rotated in a steady stream of fresh tailbacks all game long as they gained a season-high 346 yards on the ground. Matthew Tucker led the way with 87 yards, while Wesley added 78.

TCU limited the Rams to just 161 total yards. The Frogs also held the Rams to eight first downs as they won their 18th straight regular-season game. The shutout marked the first time in Gary Patterson's tenure as head coach that TCU shut out an opponent on the road.

Andy Dalton's 39-yard fourth-quarter touchdown pass to Jimmy Young gave him a new TCU-record 50 scoring tosses in his career, breaking the previous all-time mark of 49 (Max Knake, 1992-95). Dalton also set a new program mark for career pass attempts during the victory.

The Frogs weren't clicking early, as they had a bunch of dropped passes, along with a few overthrown attempts by Dalton. The offense produced only a pair of field goals by Ross Evans in the first half. The six points represented a season low in a half for the Frogs' offense.

The defense picked up the slack. Colorado State had more punts (6) in the opening half than first downs (2).

JEREMY KERLEY, WR

FORT WORTH (AP) - Andy Dalton threw for a season-high 270 yards and three touchdowns, and TCU recorded a second consecutive shutout for the first time in 55 years in the No. 5 Frogs' 45-0 victory against Wyoming.

TCU featured a balanced offensive attack against the Cowboys, rushing for 305 and passing for 281. Tailback Ed Wesley totaled 115 yards on the ground for his third 100-yard performance of the season.

Dalton completed 14-of-17 attempts and found nine different receivers. Scoring passes went to Jeremy Kerley, Bart Johnson and Antoine Hicks. The tosses to Kerley and Johnson went for 50 and 31 yards, respectively, in the game's opening 15:07.

The Frogs limited the Cowboys to only 191 total yards, marking the second straight game the TCU defense held an opponent under 200 yards. Wyoming was a combined 0-of-11 on third- and fourth-down conversion attempts. Safety Tekerrein Cuba racked up a TCU season-best 12 tackles.

The back-to-back shutouts were the first for TCU since 1955, when the Frogs had three straight shutouts against Texas Tech, Arkansas and Alabama. TCU, ranked seventh nationally in total defense coming in at 238 yards per game, held Wyoming to 191.

JOSH BOYCE, WR

FORT WORTH (AP) - Andy Dalton threw four touchdown passes, including two barely a minute apart late in the first half, and No. 4 TCU narrowly missed a third consecutive shutout in a 31-3 victory against BYU.

Leading 3-0 in the waning minutes of the first half, the Frogs took control of the game. Stansly Maponga sacked BYU quarterback Jake Heaps, forcing the Cougars to punt from their 4. Given good field position, Dalton found Josh Boyce on a 35-yard score two plays later. Boyce finished with eight catches for 127 yards, TCU's most since Jimmy Young totaled a school-record 226 in 2008 vs. Wyoming.

The Frogs got the ball right back on an interception, and Dalton hit a wide-open Young for a 14-yard score that made it 17-0 with 26 seconds left in the half.

The Cougars had just 14 total yards in the first half but ended TCU's shutout streak at 10 quarters, crossing midfield for the first time on a 70-yard drive to a short field goal late in the third.

The Frogs padded the lead in the fourth quarter, just as they did two weeks ago when they led Colorado State 6-0 at halftime before winning 27-0. This time, it was a pair of Dalton touchdown passes, starting with the second Dalton-to-Boyce connection -- a 20-yard pass where Boyce avoided a defender at the 10 and stretched the ball across the goal line as he was being tackled.

Then came the 21-yard capper to Jeremy Kerley, who ran under Dalton's throw to the end zone on fourth-and-3 with 4:26 remaining.

ED WESLEY, TB

FORT WORTH (AP) - Ed Wesley rushed for a career-high 209 yards and two touchdowns, and the TCU defense stiffened after giving up its first October touchdown, leading the No. 4 Frogs to a 38-7 victory over Air Force.

Wesley had more yards by himself than the nation's No. 1 rushing offense as the Frogs piled up 377 yards on the ground, 30 more than the Falcons averaged coming in.

Air Force answered with a TCU touchdown on the opening possession by driving 89 yards against a TCU defense that had allowed just three points in the previous three games.

The Falcons didn't do much more, though, while the Frogs just kept rolling. Both of Wesley's scores came in the second half, and TCU finished with 562 total yards.

For the second week in a row, TCU was in a three-point game before taking control just before halftime. This time, the lead was 10-7 after the Frogs went 89 yards in 3:01, capped by Andy Dalton's 8-yard scoring pass to Jeremy Kerley with 16 seconds left in the half. Dalton finished 11-of-20 for 185 yards while adding a career-best 93 yards rushing.

TCU had six plays of 20-plus yards and 312 total yards before halftime. Dalton's 27-yard completion to Josh Boyce keyed a 71-yard, game-opening touchdown drive that the quarterback finished himself with a 5-yard run, extending his school record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback to 20.

COLIN JONES, S

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) - Andy Dalton threw for 252 yards and two touchdowns, Jeremy Kerley scored running and receiving, and No. 4 TCU dominated defensively again to stay undefeated with a 48-6 road victory against UNLV.

Ed Wesley ran 64 yards on 13 carries with a touchdown and Dalton finished 16 of 23 with no interceptions.

TCU built a 28-6 halftime lead. Kerley started the scoring with a 5-yard run around the left side with 9:31 left in the first quarter, followed by Wesley's 1-yard run up the middle on the first play of the second quarter to make it 14-0. Colin Jones intercepted Omar Clayton's pass and ran it back for a 30-yard touchdown one minute later. Dalton had a 1-yard dive into the end zone with a minute until halftime.

Three plays into the second half, Dalton found Josh Boyce across the middle in stride for a 54-yard touchdown pass. It was TCU's longest play from scrimmage this season.

Dalton had a 1-yard dive into the end zone with a minute until halftime and hooked up with Kerley on a 24-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter.

ANDY DALTON, QB

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Andy Dalton passed for a career-high 355 yards and three touchdowns and No. 3 TCU looked every bit like a team worthy of busting into the BCS championship game with a 47-7 demolition of No. 5 Utah.

Jeremy Kerley threw a TD pass as the Horned Frogs jumped out to an early 20-0 lead, quieting a sellout crowd clad almost entirely in black.

By halftime, the Horned Frogs had outgained Utah 328-72 en route to a 23-0 lead. The loss snapped Utah's 21-game home winning streak.

Dalton found Josh Boyce for a 26-yard TD pass on the opening drive, then came back to Boyce eight minutes later with a 93-yard scoring strike, the third-longest offensive play in TCU history.

Utah struggled to get anything going against TCU's No. 1-ranked defense, finishing with only 199 total yards.

The battle of unbeatens had been hyped all week, with ESPN GameDay even broadcasting its show from the parking lot of Rice-Eccles Stadium, and some fans camping out 30 hours before kickoff. But there were a smattering of boos in the crowd of 46,522 - second-most in school history - as Utah mustered just five first downs in the first half and 11 total.

FORT WORTH (AP) - Andy Dalton threw for 240 yards and four touchdowns, three to fellow senior Jeremy Kerley, as TCU rallied from an early two-touchdown deficit and then held on for a 40-35 victory against San Diego State in its home finale.

San Diego State was held to one first down in the opening 42 minutes, on a flea flicker on the game's second play from scrimmage, and three first downs through three quarters. The Horned Frogs more than doubled the Aztecs in time of possession.

TCU featured two players with 100-plus yards rushing in Matthew Tucker (131) and Waymon James (102).

Dalton capped TCU's first scoring drive with a 38-yard TD to Kerley, who caught the ball near the 30 and slipped past a defender along the sideline.

Kerley's 43-yard punt return set up Dalton's 15-yard TD pass to tight end Logan Brock on the next drive. But Ross Evans' extra point attempt hit the upright, keeping the Aztecs ahead 14-13.

Freshman tailback Waymon James put the Frogs ahead to stay on a powerful 9-yard run with 6:39 left in the first half, when he dragged defensive back Larry Parker into the end zone.

LUKE SHIVERS, FB

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Andy Dalton threw three touchdown passes as TCU capped its second straight undefeated regular season with another Mountain West championship.

Fullback Luke Shivers scored twice on short runs and reserve quarterback Casey Pachall passed for one TD and ran for another.

The Horned Frogs had their highest scoring output of the season, outperforming a 62-7 win over Tennessee Tech on Sept. 11. TCU scored five unanswered TDs in the second half to pull away from a 31-17 halftime margin.

TCU set single-season school records with 68 TDs and 506 points, the third straight year with a new mark in each category.

Dalton became TCU's career passing leader with 10,022 yards and took over as the Mountain West's total offense leader with 11,617 yards.

Pachall scored on an 8-yard run and threw a 21-yard TD strike to Logan Brock, then Shivers scored on a 1-yard run to put TCU up 52-17.

PASADENA, Calif. — Andy Dalton threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score, linebacker Tank Carder swatted down a 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2 minutes to play, and No. 3 TCU completed a perfect season with its first Rose Bowl victory, 21-19 over fourth-ranked Wisconsin on Saturday.

Bart Johnson caught an early TD pass and recovered a late onside kick for the Mountain West champion Horned Frogs (13-0), who followed up their second straight unbeaten regular season by busting the BCS in dramatic fashion.

Dalton passed for 219 yards for TCU, which won't win the national title - that will go to either Auburn or Oregon. They meet in the BCS championship game in nine days.

These ferocious Frogs still proved they can play with anybody on college football's biggest stages.

TCU lost last year's Fiesta Bowl to Boise State, but that's still the only loss of the past two seasons for Patterson's remarkable Fort Worth power. TCU is the first school from a non-automatic qualifying conference to play in the Rose Bowl since the advent of the BCS, but the Frogs were right at home in Pasadena.

Luke Shivers' 1-yard TD run put TCU ahead 21-13 early in the third quarter, but neither team scored again until Wisconsin mounted a 77-drive in the waning minutes. Montee Ball rushed for a 4-yard score with 2 minutes to play, but Carder made a perfectly timed leap at the line to bat down Scott Tolzien's throw to the end zone. The intended receiver was open in the end zone.

Johnson easily grabbed Wisconsin's onside kick, and TCU rushed for a final first down to kill the clock.

Patterson stopped his players from dumping a Gatorade bucket on him before time ran out, lecturing them with a smile on his face. When the final seconds ticked off, the Frogs ran about the field in a frenzy, eventually collecting near the TCU band and the quarter of the Rose Bowl stands filled with purple-clad fans.

And eventually the Frogs doused their coach, too.

Dalton went 15 for 23 and rushed for a first-quarter score, winning the game's offensive MVP award. But the defense deserved the credit for hanging on when TCU couldn't score in the game's final 26 minutes.

Carder was the leader all game and the man at the end.

"I saw him cock his arm back, and I jumped up and swatted it away," Carder said. "I was in the right place at the right time. They almost (wore us down), but we pulled it out at the end. It seems like we got a little bit better toward the end."

TCU FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

TCU is ready to embark upon its 115th year of Horned Frog football. Through all the years, with the exception of 1900, Frog ballclubs have competed on an organized basis. Even during the war years, as well as through the Great Depression, each fall TCU football squads have done battle on the gridiron.

BEGINNINGS

The newfangled game of football, created in the East, made a quiet and unofficial appearance on the TCU campus (AddRan College as it was then known and located in Waco, Texas, or nearby Thorp Spring) in the fall of 1896. It was then that several of the college's more robust students, along with the enthusiastic support of a couple of young "profs," Addison Clark, Jr., and A.C. Easley, banded together to form a team. Three games were actually played that season ... all after Thanksgiving. The first contest was an 8-6 victory over Toby's Business College of Waco and the other two games were with the Houston Heavyweights, a town team.

By 1897 the new sport had progressed and AddRan enlisted its first coach, Joe J. Field, to direct the team. Field's ballclub won three games that autumn, including a first victory over Texas A&M. The only loss was to the University of Texas, 18-10. Those games with the Aggies and Longhorns launched football feuds that carried forth for 99 years. In 1899, the first game with Baylor was played to launch still another traditional rivalry. By 1902, the name of the school had been changed to Texas Christian University. The nickname, "Horned Frogs," had been added a few years earlier because "of the abundance of those creatures around campus."

TIAA ERA

In 1909, the university became a member of the old TIAA (Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association). Several TCU teams recorded outstanding records, including the 1912 Horned Frog unit, which had an 8-1 mark with the lone loss coming against Texas, a team that the Frogs did not beat until 1929.

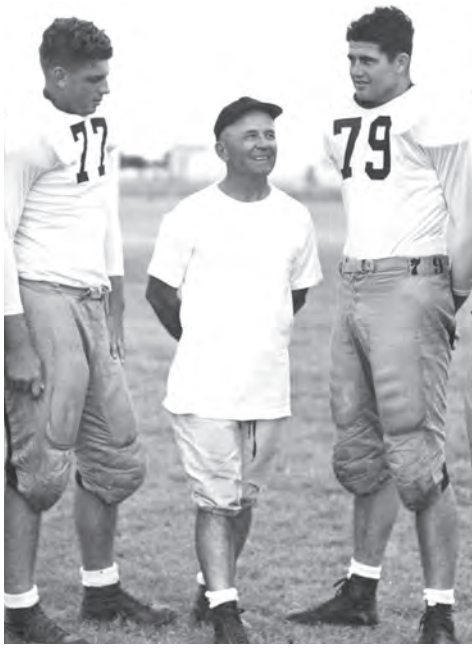
In 1920, a post-World War I team produced TCU's best record to date, winning nine straight games in the regular season. However, a post season bowl (the Dixie Bowl) contest was booked in Fort Worth with the famed "Prayin' Colonels" of Centre College. That proved to be a mistake as Centre trounced the Frogs, 63-7. L.R. (Dutch) Meyer was an end on that TCU grid eleven.

SWC EARLY YEARS

In 1923, TCU was admitted to the still-infant Southwest Athletic Conference, a league which was destined to become the major collegiate league of the Southwest. In their initial season in the SWC, the Horned Frogs played three games and posted a record of two wins and one loss.

Though a young member of the SWC, over the next few years the Horned Frogs still offered some excellent results. In 1924, they won one and lost five games to finish in the cellar for the only time until 1953. In 1929, under Francis Schmidt, TCU claimed its first SWC title. Led by a brilliant young quarterback, Howard Grubbs, who later became the executive secretary of the Southwest Conference and the Horned Frogs' first in a line of great passers, TCU won four straight league games.

The Frogs clinched their first title with a 7-7 tie against SMU in the final contest of '29. During Schmidt's regime, which lasted through the 1933 campaign, the Frogs were double tough. They finished third in 1930, second in '31 and won the SWC title again in 1932 with a perfect 6-0 record. It was the first time that one Southwest Conference team had defeated all the others, since a round robin had not been played in any of the previous seasons.



Dutch Meyer (left) and Abe Martin helped deliver seven of TCU's 16 conference titles and 12 of the program's 26 all-time bowl appearances.

DUTCH MEYER ERA

In 1934, with Schmidt being lured to Ohio State, Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the Horned Frog grid coach. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others. During Baugh's college days, the Frogs won 12, lost one in 1935; and won nine, lost two and tied a pair in 1936. As a junior, Baugh led TCU to a 3-2 victory in the Sugar Bowl and a national title, but was never able to help the Frogs claim a SWC title.

His successor, Davey O'Brien, took over leadership of the Frogs for the 1937 and 1938 seasons and, during his senior year, paced the Purples to their best record in history. That magnificent '38 ballclub was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's Horned Frogs rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The club outscored its opponents – 269 to 60 – and never found itself behind, except briefly in the Sugar Bowl encounter. After the Sugar Bowl, the Frogs were crowned national champions.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the SWC and won another championship in '44. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951, two years before he became full-time athletics director (Meyer would later retire as TCU's A.D. in 1963).

ABE MARTIN ERA

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Abe installed the popular T-formation, and in just three short years had found the championship formula. His 1955 TCU ballclub, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games, the only loss being to Texas A&M. In 1958, Martin found the victory formula again with good quarterbacking and defense. In 1959, the Frogs disproved the critics to tie Texas and Arkansas for the crown, posting a 5-1 league record.

During his 14-year regime, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 mark in Frogland, directed the Purples to five post-season bowl games, and produced seven All-Americans.

THE 1970s

The decade of the 1970s was, for the most part, one of disappointment for the fans of TCU football. Fred Taylor, the successor to Abe Martin in 1966, guided Horned Frog teams through four seasons, with the best record being a modest 4-6. Jim Pittman was hired from a successful bowl campaign at Tulane, but tragedy struck midway through the 1971 season when Pittman was felled by a fatal heart attack during the Baylor game. His chief aide, Billy Tohill, took over and piloted TCU through the 1973 season. Then another former Frog great, Jim Shofner, returned from the NFL and led the Horned Frogs until 1977. The Slingin' Sammy Baugh (No. 45) led TCU to its first of two national championships in the 1930s under Head Coach Dutch Meyer.

TCU FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

coaching door then swung open for F. A. Dry, who brought some impressive credentials from Tulsa. Dry's TCU teams became known for hard-ball defense and impressive aerial displays, but a 3-8 mark in 1982 proved to be Dry's best in six seasons and yet another change of direction was mandated.

JIM WACKER ERA

From 1983 through 1991, Horned Frog grid fortunes were in the hands of former NCAA Division II coaching legend Jim Wacker, who left opulent marks as well as two pairs of national championship trophies at both Southwest Texas State and Texas Lutheran. Wacker's first campaign at TCU produced only 1-8-2 results, but he steered the Horned Frogs to a dramatic 8-4 turnaround in 1984 en route to a Bluebonnet Bowl date. Several national, as well as Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors, ultimately were awarded to the bubbly Wacker. However, an NCAA probation for discovered infractions in 1985 affected the Frogs' rise over the next several seasons.

PAT SULLIVAN ERA

On January 2, 1992, Pat Sullivan was introduced as the 27th head coach in TCU football history. Sullivan probably is best remembered as a college quarterbacking great at Auburn, where he won the Heisman Trophy in 1971. Sullivan instilled confidence along with an appreciation for self-discipline into the TCU grid makeup during his initial campaign with the Horned Frogs.

Though the Sullivan influence on TCU's program was obvious from the outset, tangible proof of his impact in Frogland became pronounced during 1994. For the Horned Frog faithful it was a campaign of sweet memories and bona fide successes beginning in early fall with the official dedication of TCU's Walsh Complex, an ultra-impressive athletic training and weight-conditioning center. Powered by the most prolific offense in the Southwest Conference, an attack spearheaded by quarterback Max Knake and tailback Andre Davis, the Frogs fashioned a 7-4 regular-season mark. En route, they captured a share of the school's ninth SWC football championship, along with an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

TCU saw a major increase in attendance thanks to its succss on the field in 1994. The increase of 11,062 folks per game (a 42.5 percent increase) was one of the nation's best that season. Sullivan resigned in November 1997 after six seasons at the Horned Frog grid helm.

THE WAC YEARS

TCU Football in 1996 was almost a double-dose of euphoria. Not only did it mark the 100th-year celebration for the sport, but the University officially became a new member of the expanded Western Athletic Conference as well. The Horned Frog program joined teams from Rice, SMU and Tulsa to form Quadrant 1 of the Mountain Division. Quadrant 2 members were Air Force, UNLV, Colorado State and Wyoming. Pacific Division members of the WAC were New Mexico, UTEP, BYU, along with Fresno State, San Jose State, Hawai'i and San Diego State.

DENNIS FRANCHIONE ERA

In three seasons under Dennis Franchione, the TCU football program took a giant leap forward. In his first season, Fran led the Frogs to a 7-5 record, which included an upset win over USC in the Sun Bowl.

The Frogs, who were 1-10 in 1997 under Pat Sullivan, tied Louisville for the biggest turnaround in the country with the six-win improvement in 1998. Although many believed the Frogs stood no chance, Franchione guided the Frogs to a 28-19 win over the vaunted Trojans. The victory was the first bowl win since 1957, when TCU defeated Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Then in 1999, TCU claimed a share of the WAC title, earning a trip to the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl, where TCU knocked off East Carolina, 28-14. Tailback LaDainian Tomlinson led the country in rushing in 1999, averaging over 168 yards per game for a season total of 1,850 yards. The Frogs came back with one of the best seasons in school history as the new millennium got underway. Moving as high in the polls as No. 9 and carrying the nation's longest winning streak for a stretch, the Frogs put together a 10-2 campaign. Tomlinson again led the nation in rushing, this time with over 2,000 yards, en route to the Doak Walker Award. Following the season he was the fifth player selected in the NFL Draft.

THE CONFERENCE USA YEARS

The Frogs took on a new look in 2001 as they made the move into Conference USA. The 11-member football league included Army, Cincinnati, East Carolina, Houston, Louisville, Memphis, Southern Miss, South Florida, Tulane and UAB. Despite the change in leagues, TCU continued its strong run with a school record six consecutive bowl game appearances and back-to-back top 25 finishes for the first time since the 1950s. Highlighting TCU's four-year stint in Conference USA was the 2002 CUSA Co-Championship, which the Frogs shared with Cincinnati.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

TCU began Mountain West Conference play in 2005 and immediately posted a record-breaking campaign. The Frogs, picked to finish sixth, went 8-0 in their debut season to claim their first outright conference title since 1958. TCU became just the third team in MWC history to go undefeated and the first to be 8-0. The Frogs are 33-7 in their opening five seasons of MWC play, which ranks second among all league teams.

GARY PATTERSON ERA

Gary Patterson has posted seven 10-win seasons in the last nine years, including six 11-win campaigns since 2003. No other head coach in TCU history has reached 10 victories more than twice.

In just 10 years, Patterson has an 98-28 record to place second on the Horned Frogs' career victory chart. His .778 winning percentage is second all-time among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt. Patterson has had TCU ranked in the final Top 25 in seven of his 10 campaigns, including four top-10 finishes in the last six seasons.

In his tenure, Patterson has coached 130 All-Conference selections, 13 All-Americans, 13 Freshman All-Americans and two Academic All-American. He has had 29 players drafted with 48 in NFL camps. Patterson has been named conference coach of the year three times and was named National Coach of the Year by nine outlets during the Frogs' highly successful 2009 season.

TCU has garnered the country's attention in nearly every season under Patterson, including the last two campaigns that sent the Frogs to the 2010 Fiesta Bowl and 2011 Rose Bowl.

The 2009 Frogs experienced the program's most successful season since the 1930's by earning an at-large bid to the Fiesta Bowl--the school's first BCS berth since the system was adopted by major college football. TCU, which went 8-0 on its way to the MWC title, captured the national spotlight with a perfect 12-0 regular season capped by a No. 4 ranking by both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls. The team finished the year No. 6 in both polls. Three Frogs were named All-Americans, including defensive end Jerry Hughes, who became only the second consensus first-team pick in school history. Hughes also reeled in a pair of major national honors in the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy.

In 2010, TCU (13-0) defeated Wisconsin, 21-19, in the Rose Bowl to cap its first undefeated season since capturing the 1938 national championship with an 11-0 ledger. It's the first 13-win season at TCU and just the second undefeated and untied campaign in program history. The Frogs finished second in the Associated Press and USA Today polls, marking its highest season-ending ranking since 1938. The Frogs posted their third straight top-10 final ranking, marking the first time TCU has finished in the top-10 in three consecutive seasons. TCU is the only school in the nation to finish in both the AP and USA Today top 10 the last three years.

TCU led the nation in total defense for a third straight year in 2010 and has now finished first in that category more times (five) than any other program since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937. Individually, senior Jake Kirkpatrick claimed the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's best center. Safety Tejay Johnson became the third consensus first-team All-American in TCU history.

The 2010 campaign proved to be the culmination of several successful Frog seasons in the decade of the 2000's under Patterson. The 2003 Frogs won their opening 10 games, while the 2005 squad opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma on its way to an 11-win season. TCU recorded victories in the 2002 Liberty Bowl, 2005 Houston Bowl, 2006 Poinsettia Bowl, 2007 Texas Bowl and 2008 Poinsettia Bowl leading up to their first BCS appearance in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. The 95-29 record compiled by the Frogs in the 2000's ranked No. 7 nationally.

TCU IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

1929 (NO. 7)
TCU's first Southwest Conference championship team, led by halfback Cy Leland, quarterback Howard Grubbs and All-America guard Mike Brumbelow, finished the season undefeated (9-0-1) and was placed No. 7 in the nation in an unofficial AP ranking. The familiar AP poll of today was not originated until 1936.

1932 (NO. 4)
The undefeated Horned Frogs (10-0-1) rose to true national prominence in '32 as they romped through the Southwest Conference race with ease and wound up No. 4 in the country in the final rankings of Illustrated Football magazine, the game's leading authority of the era. Six members of the starting line, anchored by All-America guard Johnny Vaught, were named all-conference, as were both halfbacks, Blanard Spearman and Red Oliver. When Pittsburgh was invited to the Rose Bowl over TCU, the Frogs tried to arrange a post-season game against Tulane, another highly regarded team, but nothing came of it.

1933 (NO. 9)
Coach Francis Schmidt produced three teams in the nation's Top 10 during his five seasons at TCU. The 1933 squad was the third. Paced by halfback Charlie Casper, the Frogs rolled to a 9-2-1 record but closed fast with stunning victories over Texas (30-0), Rice (26-3) and SMU (26-6). This finish impressed the syndicated sportswriter Grantland Rice so much he put TCU No. 9 in the final national rankings of his popular annual ratings service known as Grantland Rice's Cities Service Football Guide.

1935 (NO. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
As a TCU lineup produced two All-Americans for the first time – quarterback Sammy Baugh and center Darrell Lester – the Frogs reached the zenith of a national championship in the thrilling season of '35. The Frogs were tabbed No. 1 after the bowl games by the Williamson Rating System, the most authoritative poll in the land at the time. TCU wound up No. 1 after its 3-2 victory over powerful LSU in the Sugar Bowl. The Frogs' only loss had been a narrow one (20-14) to SMU in "The Game of the Century." But when the Mustangs were upset by Stanford 7-0 in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, the same afternoon that TCU whipped LSU in New Orleans, Williamson crowned TCU No. 1.

1936 (NO. 5)
Injuries, freaky upsets and a couple of foul-weather scoreless ties couldn't keep Sammy Baugh from repeating as an All-American and leading the Frogs to No. 5 in the nation in the final Williamson Rating System. Along the way, Baugh knocked off conference champion Arkansas, rudely upset the nation's last remaining perfect-record team, Santa Clara, and then won a duel with Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Classic. All of that left the Frogs with a 9-2-2 record.

1938 (NO. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
A dream season. This incredible Frog team handily went 11-0, including the 15-7 victory over No. 5 Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. TCU captured every meaningful No. 1 ranking – AP, Williamson, Helms – turned out eight all-conference players on various selections, and three All-Americans, quarterback Davey O'Brien, center Ki Aldrich, and tackle I.B. Hale. O'Brien received the Heisman, Maxwell and Camp trophies. As the true national champions, the Frogs outpolled three other undefeated elevens in '38 – Tennessee, Oklahoma and Duke.

1941 (NO. 10)
Quarterback cohorts Kyle Gillespie and Emery Nix led the Frogs to a 7-2-1 record with the aid of All-America tackle Derrell Palmer and all-conference end Bruce Alford. Their only losses were to top-10 teams, No. 6 Fordham and No. 9 Texas A&M. But later, Nix sparked TCU to a memorable 14-7 upset of No. 1-ranked Texas. Ultimately, at the end of the regular season, the Williamson Rating System thought highly enough of the Frogs to rank them No. 10 in the nation. They became the first Southwest Conference team to play in the Orange Bowl, where they lost a wild one to Georgia, 40-26.

1951 (NO. 10)
Sophomore Ray McKown, running and passing out of the old Dutch Meyer spread formation, carried the Frogs to their most surprising conference title with only a 6-4 record. Still, these Frogs were ranked No. 10 in the nation in the UPI poll at the season's end. In so doing, McKown earned All-America honors, as did Keith Flowers and tackle Doug Conaway. In the Cotton Bowl game, TCU outgained Bear Bryant's Kentucky team by a huge margin, but saw no fewer than five drives stall inside Kentucky's 10-yard line, and were outscored, 20-7.

1955 (NO. 5)
Jim Swink set rushing and scoring records galore as the Frogs loitered the whole season among the nation's elite and won the Southwest Conference championship. In the end, with a 9-1 regular season record, they were ranked No. 3 by the Litkenhouse System, No. 5 by UPI, and No. 6 by AP. Swink was a unanimous All-America halfback and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and center Hugh Pitts also made All-America.

1958 (NO. 9)
The Frogs breezed to an 8-2 record and the conference crown behind the passing of Hunter Enis, the running of Jack Spikes and Marvin Lasater, and the line play of All-America tackle Don Floyd. TCU was ranked No. 9 in the final UPI poll and No. 10 by the AP. In the Cotton Bowl game they fought undefeated and No. 6-ranked Air Force to a 0-0 tie.

1959 (NO. 7)
These Frogs basically put three All-Americas on the field with fullback Jack Spikes and tackles Don Floyd, a repeat selection, and Bob Lilly, who would be a unanimous choice in '60. They bruised their way to another 8-2 record, tying Texas and Arkansas for the conference title. When all the votes were in from the final polls, TCU was ranked No. 7 by AP and No. 8 by UPI.

2000 (NO. 18 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 21 AP)
LaDainian Tomlinson became one of college football's greatest ball carriers – only the second player in history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and more than 5,000 in a career. Behind "LT," the Frogs sped to a 10-2 season record and the WAC championship. This performance enticed the Dunkel Index, one of the eight selectors for the Bowl Championship Series, to rate the Frogs No. 7 in the nation, their highest ranking in 40 seasons.

2002 (NO. 22 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 23 AP)
After a season-opening overtime loss at Cincinnati, the Frogs reeled off 10 wins in their next 11 games. The Frogs gained a share of the Conference USA title and posted an AXA Liberty Bowl win over Colorado State. Linebacker LaMarcus McDonald, the league's Defensive Player of the Year, led a squad that ranked first in the nation in both total defense and in stopping the run.

2003 (NO. 24 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 25 AP)
The Frogs reeled off 10 straight wins to open the season, climbing as high as No. 10 in the national rankings. Their success, which included five three-point wins, caught the attention of the nation, as they moved to sixth in the BCS standings, the highest ranking ever for a school from a non-BCS conference. A late season loss at Southern Miss kept the Frogs from winning their second-straight conference title. The Horned Frogs hosted nationally-ranked Boise State in the inaugural PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl and dropped an exciting 34-31 contest. Nick Browne was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year and earned All-America accolades. Defensive end Bo Schobel set a school record for sacks while earning second-team All-America honors from the AP. Head coach Gary Patterson was one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honors.

2005 (NO. 9 USA TODAY; NO. 11 AP)
TCU (11-1, 8-0) closed the season ranked ninth by USA Today for its highest appearance in a final poll since finishing seventh in the 1959 campaign. TCU opened and closed 2005 with victories over Big 12 bowl teams, winning at Oklahoma and then defeating Iowa State. In its first season of Mountain West Conference play, TCU became just the third team in league history to post an undefeated record (8-0). In the process, TCU captured its first outright league championship since sweeping through the Southwest Conference en route to the 1938 national title. TCU paced the Mountain West Conference with 18 all-conference selections with Cory Rodgers a consensus All-American at kick returner. Gary Patterson was the MWC Coach of the Year with tailback Aaron Brown named Freshman of the Year. Linebacker Jason Phillips and defensive end Tommy Blake were Freshman and Sophomore All-Americans, respectively.

2006 (NO. 21 USA TODAY; NO. 22 AP)
TCU (11-2, 6-2) posted its fourth 10-win season in the last five years. The Frogs became one of only five teams in the nation to reach 11 victories three times in the last four campaigns. The Frogs finished the campaign ranked 21st by the AP and 22nd in the USA Today poll. It represented the fifth time in the past seven years that TCU closed the season in the top 25. The Frogs ranked second nationally in total defense (234.9 yards per game) and run defense (60.8 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). TCU was one of three teams nationally to not allow a 100-yard rushing game by an opposing running back.

2008 (NO. 7 USA TODAY; NO. 7 AP)
TCU finished with its highest national ranking in half a century when it appeared at No. 7 in the final release of the AP and USA Today polls. The Frogs reached 10 wins for the fifth time in seven years with an 11-2 record. The only losses came at the hands of then-No. 2 Oklahoma, which played in the BCS Championship Game, and Utah, the nation's only undefeated team at 13-0. A Poinsettia Bowl win over previously-unbeaten Boise State capped off the season. The Horned Frogs featured the nation's top-ranked defensive unit in 2008, leading the nation in total defense for the third time in nine seasons by surrendering just 217.8 yards per game, in addition to topping the country in run defense (47.1 ypg). Junior defensive end Jerry Hughes was a consensus first-team All-America selection after leading the nation with 15 sacks and six forced fumbles.

2009 (NO. 6 USA TODAY; NO. 6 AP)
The 2009 Frogs experienced the program's most successful season since the 1930's by earning an at-large bid to the Fiesta Bowl--the school's first BCS berth since the system was adopted by major college football. The team finished the year No. 6 in both polls for its best end-of-season ranking since the 1938 national title season following a 17-10 loss to Boise State in the Fiesta Bowl. Three Frogs were named All-Americans, including defensive end Jerry Hughes, who became only the second consensus first-team pick in school history, while Patterson was honored with nine different National Coach of the Year awards. Hughes also reeled in a pair of major national honors in the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy, while quarterback Andy Dalton was named MWC Offensive Player of the Year. The Hughes-led defense led the nation in total defense (239.7 ypg) for the fourth time in the decade, while the Frog offense broke school records for points scored (38.3 ppg) and total offense (456.7 ypg).

2010 (NO. 2 USA TODAY; NO. 2 AP)
TCU (13-0) defeated Wisconsin, 21-19, in the Rose Bowl to cap its first undefeated season since capturing the 1938 national championship with an 11-0 ledger. It's the first 13-win season at TCU and just the second undefeated and untied campaign in program history. The Frogs finished second in the AP and USA Today polls, marking its highest season-ending ranking since 1938. The Frogs posted their third straight top-10 final ranking, marking the first time TCU has finished in the top-10 in three consecutive seasons. TCU is the only school in the nation to finish in both the AP and USA Today top 10 the last three years. TCU led the nation in total defense for a third straight year in 2010 and has now finished first in that category more times (five) than any other program since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937. Jake Kirkpatrick claimed the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's best center, while Tejay Johnson became the third consensus first-team All-American in TCU history.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1935

TCU was tabbed No. 1 in the nation by the Williamson System, the only rating organization to publish a list after the New Year's Day Bowl contest, and ranked among the top five teams in the country by all rating services at the conclusion of the regular season. Featuring stars Sammy Baugh and Darrell Lester, the Frogs won 10 straight games before falling to SWC Champion SMU in the next-to-last game of the regular season. The Horned Frogs later defeated LSU, 3-2, in the 1936 Sugar Bowl. TCU ended the year with a record of 12-1.

1938

This remarkable Frog combine was ranked No. 1 by all the rating systems. TCU's only undefeated and untied team won the SWC Championship, then followed that feat with a Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, 15-7. The 1938 lineup included three All-Americans – Davey O'Brien, who was the first footballer to win the Walter Camp, Heisman and Maxwell trophies the same year, plus Ki Aldrich and I.B. Hale. The Frogs ended the season with a record of 11-0.

THE IRON SKILLET: TCU-SMU SERIES

During the post-World War II college football boom, the TCU and SMU student bodies created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost. In 1993, the tradition was revived as SMU defeated TCU, 21-15. The skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

BOWL HISTORY

1936 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 3, LSU 2 · Jan. 1, 1936

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Bernie Moore, coach of the LSU football team, was skeptical that TCU's 3 to 2 victory in the Sugar Bowl game was a conclusive test of the squads. "My conclusion of the game was that the slippery field eliminated at least 30 percent of the offensive power of both teams," he said. Dutch Meyer, coach of TCU, said he thought the contest before a capacity crowd of 35,000 was the "finest I've ever seen played in the rain."

Yesterday's "baseball score" game was a thriller which kept the spectators in their seats despite a slow rain which fell throughout the second half ... LSU scored in the second quarter after passes and runs brought the ball to the TCU two-inch line where it changed hands on downs. When (Sammy) Baugh attempted to pass from behind the goal line he stepped over the end zone, automatically giving LSU a safety for a two-point lead. The Texans came back in the same period to recover a Louisiana fumble on the Louisiana 40 and pushed down to the LSU 16. Taldon Manton then kicked a field goal from the Tiger 26. From that point on the game was a battle of mighty defensives..

TCU played most of the game minus the services of three of her brightest stars — Left Halfback George Kline, All-American Center Darrell Lester and Halfback Rex Clark ... Clark played only one down and that was by the courtesy of Coach Meyer who wanted the injured senior star to be able to say he played in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game ... Baugh made the longest run of the day — a 44-yard gallop.

1937 COTTON BOWL
TCU 16, Marquette 6 · Jan. 1, 1937

DALLAS — With a sling-back attack that whipped over a field goal and two touchdowns in the first 25 minutes of play and with a sturdy defense that piled up the Marquette Golden Avalanche, TCU captured a spectacular football game here this New Year's Day. The score in the Cotton Bowl classic was 16-6.

So sudden, sharp and dazzling was the sweep of action of the battle that 15,000 spectators, who braved threatening weather, forgot the gray gloom of the afternoon. Led by Sammy Baugh, who out-passed and outplayed "Buzz" Buivid to cinch his claim to the title of the greatest passer of the season, the Texans uncorked an offense that flared into long gains both on the ground and in the air. Although it was Baugh who paced the attack and won the attention of the crowd, it was L.D. Meyer who did the real damage..

He scored all of TCU's 16 points. He kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first three points in the opening minutes. Before the first quarter had ended, Meyer collaborated with Sambo on a 55-yard pass-and-run gain for the first Frog TD, and in the second quarter he took an 18-yard heave from Vic Montgomery for the last score. Meyer even converted after the first touchdown.

A 60-yard punt return by Art Guepe in the first quarter accounted for all of Marquette's points.

1939 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 15, Carnegie Tech 7 · Jan. 2, 1939

NEW ORLEANS, La. — It was with power, passes and kicking that the Christians made the two touchdowns and one field goal that enabled them to win, 15-7. Carnegie's most consistent method of attack was a bristling, quick-starting and hard-hitting offense, but it was with a brilliant 38-yard pass in the last seconds of the first half that the Skibos scored ... The second half started with the Pittsburghers leading, 7-6. The first time they got possession of the hoghide, the Frogs proved irresistible. Moving with giant strides, they went 80 yards and a touchdown on five plays.

TCU punted one time. That fact alone indicates accurately how fearfully effective was the ground-gaining maneuvers of the big white-shirted representatives ... The one punt figured in making TCU's first touchdown ... When the Skibos punted out, the TCU regulars took over and went 48 yards on 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead ...

Carnegie took the next kickoff and went to town with big, fast and tough George Muha doing most of the dirty work ... Earl Clark intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to the Carnegie 35 yard-line, but Durward Horner, a TCU end, had been offsides so the play was called back ... It was on fourth down of this series of plays that Petey Moroz cut loose with his long fine pass for the Carnegie touchdown ...

The third quarter (Davey) O'Brien passed to Horner down the middle ... The end caught the ball between two Skibos, but evaded both of them and ran 24 yards across the goal line.

BOWL HISTORY

1942 ORANGE BOWL
Georgia 40, TCU 26 · Jan. 1, 1942

MIAMI, Fla. — In the wildest, weirdest football battle ever waged in this corner of the country, the Georgia Bulldogs outscored the courageous TCU Horned Frogs 40-26 ... Coach Wally Butts' fast team, well-equipped on ground and in the air, almost chased the Frogs off the field for 35 minutes... The score mounted to 40-7 with only a few minutes played in the second half.

But the Frogs are not quitters ... Everything was against them. They couldn't hold the enemy, they couldn't move themselves and they were battered and weary from their empty-handed efforts. But there was too much tradition behind those purple shirts. Suddenly, almost as if a fresh wind had blown into the stadium, the tide turned. They knocked over three touchdowns in rapid order. They turned back every Georgia thrust. The great comeback in the last 25 minutes saved the Frogs from humiliation.

Bruce Alford was the Frog star ... He blocked a punt, he made two great catches for touchdowns... After the rest period, Texas supporters hoped for a rally. But Georgia stepped out and banged 80 yards for still another touchdown that promised to make it a rout ... From that moment to the final gun it was the Bulldogs who held on and the Frogs who ripped.

1945 COTTON BOWL
Oklahoma A&M 34, TCU 0 · Jan. 1, 1945

DALLAS — With speed, spirit and spiraling passes, the Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M completely outclassed the TCU Horned Frogs in the ninth annual Cotton Bowl football game here this crystal clear New Year's afternoon to win, 34-0. Except for the second quarter when they staved off repeated threats, the Frogs were never able to cope with the double-pronged attack ... The first touchdown, scored in the fifth minute, climaxed a 59-yard advance. The second whirled 61 yards, the third 62 yards, the fourth 40 yards and the fifth 66 yards .

The Frogs moved on the ground several times when in their own territory, but after crossing the 50-yard line they were always thwarted by the bulling tactics of the burly Cowboy line ... Only once did the Frogs get inside the A&M 35-yard line and that was on a pass interception.

Bob Ruff was the only TCU back who was able to gain with any consistency, although Jesse Mason did some good work for a short time.

Coach Dutch Meyer tried all kinds of defenses against the Aggies, including a seven-man line which moved fullback Cox into the line. None of them worked for more than a few minutes at a time. The Aggies were too good in too many different ways.

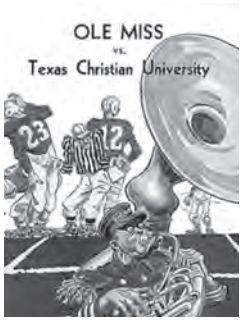
1948 DELTA BOWL
Mississippi 13, TCU 9 · Jan. 2, 1948



MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Trailing a hard-trying TCU team by nine points, the great Charley Conerly suddenly soared to the dramatic heights of football throwing expected of him. In just five minutes his rifle arm accounted for two touchdowns as the Confederates bested the Christians, 13-9, in the first Delta Bowl game.

In the closing minutes of the third period, Conerly launched a passing flurry that carried exactly 80 yards in eight plays ... The Frogs, still going strong, marched right back to the Rebel 37 where an intercepted pass sat Conerly up in business again. This time he threw only two passes...and they ate up just 63 yards to win the ball game.

In more ways than one, it was a tough game for the Frogs to lose... But they fumbled badly, losing the ball twice at crucial moments.

There were nine minutes yet to play and the Frogs gave the enemy fans a heart attack by holding the leather. Just six of them from their one-yard line, where Otis Kelvey was dropped on the kickoff, the Christians powered right up field for 59 yards... But the last threat died when Knox's pass was batted up and intercepted by the Ole Miss linebacker on the Reb 38.

BOWL HISTORY

1952 COTTON BOWL
Kentucky 20, TCU 7 · Jan. 1, 1952

DALLAS — TCU, distressingly flat except for one magnificent minute-and-half surge late in the third quarter, succeeded only in making it a masterpiece of frustration. And so the four-times-beaten Wildcats from the Bluegrass State thoroughly trounced the Southwest Conference champions before a capacity throng of 75,349 ... 20-7. Kentucky scored on two surges of 52 and 57 yards in the first and second quarters to post its 13-0 halftime lead.

Frogs, who had bogged down once on the four, wasted another 59-yard push to the 24 early in the second quarter. Here, Clark intercepted a Mal Fowler pass returned to the Kentucky 43 and the Wildcats tromped on from here for 57 yards and another touchdown in 11 plays ... TCU made its 48-yard move to the five after this and came back later in the quarter with its 51-yard march to the one all for nothing ... (Gilbert) Bartosh drew his first chance of the game ... Here Bartosh called a direct snap — back Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for touchdown on the longest run of the day.

Against the wind in the fourth Bartosh guided the Frogs 40 yards ... The TCU command sent in McKown to punt and he obliged with his neat kick-out on the 8. But here, where holding 'em was imperative for TCU, Tom Fillion broke loose for 17 yards on a third-down-seven-to-go-play ... Kentucky held the ball, put TCU in the hole with the kick and Bartosh was spilled for losses.

1956 COTTON BOWL
Mississippi 14, TCU 13 · Jan. 2, 1956

DALLAS — The University of Mississippi Rebels, champions of the Southeastern Conference, spotted the TCU Horned Frogs, champions of the Southwest Conference, 13 points in the 20th annual Cotton Bowl football game before 75,000 spectators here this warm and sunny Monday afternoon and then swung back to win by the margin of a single point, 14-13 ... (TCU) actually lost the game for being in motion on a conversion effort.

They made the 14th point on the first try, but because a player was in motion, they had to try again from five yards farther back, and missed. They probably lost the game on the opening kickoff when quarterback Chuck Curtis made the mistake of receiving and running with the ball. He was so badly injured when tackled that he never returned to action ... In spite of the handicap, the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown in the first quarter and counted in the second to lead 13-0 before the Rebels got their first touchdown to make it 13-7 at the half ... Mississippi won the game in the 11th minute of the fourth quarter ... Billy Lott scored on a five-yard gallop around his right wing. The Rebs' winning move traveled exactly the same distance as their first touchdown parade: 66 yards ... The Frogs went 44 and 75 yards for their touchdowns.

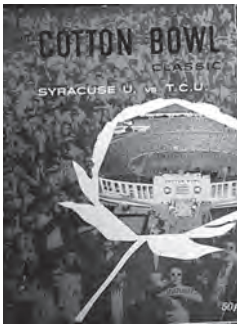
1957 COTTON BOWL
TCU 28, Syracuse 27 · Jan. 1, 1957



DALLAS — Harold Pollard's four-for-four conversions and the blocking of Syracuse's third point-after-touchdown attempt by (Chico) Mendoza produced a 28-27 Cotton Bowl victory for TCU after 18 years of waiting. The Frogs had dropped five successive bowl appearances and had not recorded a post-season triumph since 1939. It was a moving offensive show all the way with the TCU passing providing a balance Syracuse couldn't stop and the Saltine Warriors riding powerfully on a running game spearheaded by the All-America halfback, Jim Brown. He gained 132 yards and was voted the game's outstanding back. The Frogs' All-American tackle, Norman Hamilton, was the one defender who came nearest to stopping Brown consistently and he was chosen as the game's outstanding lineman.

Syracuse scored in the last two minutes to give the game its touch of such hair-breadth closeness. For much of the afternoon it was TCU's game and a couple of times seemed on the verge of turning decisive.

There was a unique twist to the first-half scoring in that each team intercepted passes and then drove 70 yards to score and each recovered fumbles and pushed out short yardage for the second touchdowns.

BOWL HISTORY

1959 COTTON BOWL
TCU 0, Air Force 0 · Jan. 1, 1959

DALLAS — The gentlemen operating the scoreboard had the easiest occupation in all land as the Southwest Conference champions (TCU) and the future generals (Air Force Academy) from Colorado Springs played the second 0-0 deadlock in the 23-year history of the New Year's Day classic ... It was the fourth tie game ever unreeled before a Cotton Bowl assemblage ... It was a disappointing final for both clubs. The Horned Frogs took the field bearing an 8-2 record. The Falcons were unbeaten in 10 games and had their season immaculate but for a tie with Iowa. The Frogs fumbled the ball on eight occasions and on three of these wasted possession. One of these came early in the final period and surely tried the composure of Coach Abe Martin as he saw the Falcons reclaim a bobble just eight steps from the Air Force Academy's end zone.

The field, covered by tarpaulin during the snow fall earlier in the week, was damp and contributed to the uneasy handling of the ball. The visiting Falcons also had difficulty retaining the sphere and lost control on three of their five fumbles. Jack Spikes attempted both of TCU's field goals, the first early in the opening period ... The Airmen offered their severest threat midway of the second quarter ... It was here that the Frog line gave its best performance, restraining the Silver and Blue on the six, the spot from where George Pupich missed a field goal.

1959 BLUEBONNET BOWL
Clemson 23, TCU 7 · Dec. 19, 1959

HOUSTON — The Frogs were drowned, 23-7, by a deadly sprinkle of Clemson passes in a seven-minute period of the final quarter ... The sudden Clemson scoring flood washed away a 7-3 lead TCU carried into the fatal final period. A narrow margin, but one that, at the time, appeared enough to send the luckless Tigers down to their fourth straight bowl defeat ... Neither team had threatened seriously after Clemson's second quarter 22-yard field goal by Lon Armstrong, and TCU's lone touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Jack Redding to Harry Moreland with 5:45 left in the first half. Clemson had completed only one gaining pass all afternoon, that a 5-yard throw from Tiger quarterback Harvey White.

White must have spotted the silver lining in the gathering darkness for Tiger hopes. He took plenty of time behind the mammoth line and arched a long, high shot toward right end Gary Barnes, racing past TCU's Larry Dawson at the Frog 35. Armstrong added the extra point ... Two plays after the kickoff, Armstrong lassoed a pass from TCU quarterback Donald George ... From there, Lowndes Shingler, overwhelmingly voted outstanding back, came back to guide the Tigers for the final slap on the cheek to a proud TCU team which had gained wide respect as the class of the Southwest Conference, winning seven games to finish in a 3-way tie for the title.

1965 SUN BOWL
Texas Western 13, TCU 12 · Dec. 19, 1965

EL PASO, Texas. — The Miners sulked off the field with a 10-point deficit at the intermission, but then pumped up Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot and eventually deflated the Frogs, 13-12. Stevens, who gained second rank among the nation's passers this season, proved his stardom to TCU by racking up 208 yards on 21 pass completions, the most ever against an Abe Martin team. The skinny sophomore had only seven strikes in the first half as the ball-controlling Frogs rammed into a 10-0 lead. Stevens made the 31st annual post season game a vastly different story in the second half.

Stevens shot a 34-yard touchdown pass to 165-pound flanker Chuck Hughes and a startling comeback was begun ... The Miners drove 70 yards for a tying 21-yard field goal by Cook... Texas Western, a raging defensive team by this time, hopped on a TCU fumble at the Frog 29.

Cook kicked an 18-yard three-pointer FG four plays deep in the final period to boot the Miners into a 13-10 cushion. TCU's final two points were a gift. With 43 seconds left in the game ... The Miner quarterback raced back in his end zone for a safety ... The Frogs got their last chance. They could get only eight yards before the clock ran out.

Although Stevens won the great air race in the end, TCU's senior quarterback, Kent Nix got a head start.

David Smith hauling in Nix's 11-yard pass for the score ... The Frogs had another scoring opportunity in the first period ... (Bruce) Alford missed a kick from the 28.

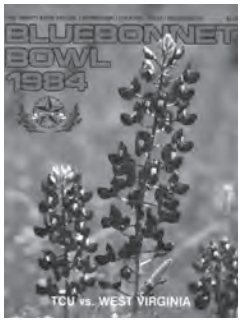
BOWL HISTORY

1984 BLUEBONNET BOWL
West Virginia 31, TCU 14 · Dec. 31, 1984



HOUSTON — What had promise of being the exciting finish to an "unbelievable" season turned closer to a nightmare ... at least until TCU's dramatic, fourth-quarter comeback restored some degree of respect to the outcome in the 25th edition of the Bluebonnet Bowl. The final score was West Virginia 31, TCU 14. But for the Horned Frogs there were lots of dips and swerves along the way. For starters, a 21-point West Virginia blitz during a 14-minute span of the first half had somewhat of a sobering effect on the Purples. So did the loss of All-American running back Kenneth Davis, to a knee injury, in the early moments of the postseason classic.

After being shoved up and down the field by the Mountaineers' offense (355 yards), while countering with little punch themselves (148 yards) during the first 30 minutes, the Horned Frogs did make a contest of it after the intermission, scoring the only touchdown of the second half while mounting a couple of other drives which nearly resulted in points. Much of TCU's second half turnaround was due to the passing arm of senior Anthony Gulley who finished with 150 yards passing including TD tosses to Dan Sharp and Keith Burnett. Senior receiver James Maness caught five passes for 90 yards but was no match statistically for the six-catch, 152-yard performance of WVU lightning bug.

1994 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
Virginia 20, TCU 10 · Dec. 28, 1994

SHREVEPORT, La. — A decade slipped by before TCU's Horned Frogs resurfaced from oblivion into the post-season... The Frogs mostly slipped however, as they trudged and muddied themselves on the rain-drenched field of Independence Stadium... Some 27,242 fans – a majority of them TCU supporters – withstood the temptation to stay home ... The view became painstakingly clear no matter the vantage point ... Virginia proved too good for these upstart Frogs and captured its first bowl triumph in five attempts since 1987 with the 20-10 victory ... "We can't use the field as an excuse in any way," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "I couldn't be more proud of our football team, but we weren't quite good enough in a couple of ways."

The 15th-ranked Cavaliers (9-3) dominated at the point of attack, where so many games will be won or lost ... The Frogs and their Southwest Conference-leading offense, which averaged 411.6 yards per game during the regular season, sustained nothing on this chilly, wet night. Virginia, which entered the contest with the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive unit against the run, surrendered only 191 yards and 11 first downs to the Frogs.

The running of junior tailback Andre Davis, who rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries, failed to provide enough offense on a night when (quarterback Max) Knake struggled. "The truth of it is I played terrible," said Knake. "If I could have played better, there may have been a different outcome."

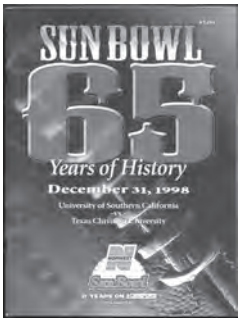
1998 SUN BOWL
TCU 28, USC 19 · Dec. 31, 1998



EL PASO, Texas — With only six wins, many thought TCU was not worthy of a bowl appearance. But, the Horned Frogs proved their critics wrong in a big way.

Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on only 19 carries as TCU earned its first bowl victory in 41 years with a 28-19 win over USC in the 65th Sun Bowl.

Quarterback Patrick Batteaux added 94 yards and two scores for TCU, which recorded its first post-season win since defeating Syracuse in the 1957 Cotton Bowl.

TCU (7-5) dominated the line of scrimmage, rushing for 314 yards while holding USC to a Sun Bowl record minus-23, breaking by two yards the mark set by Florida State in 1951. The Trojans (8-5) also posted the lowest rushing total in school history, eclipsing the previous record of minus-11 yards against Iowa in 1976.

Mitchell fell just short of Charles Alexander's Sun Bowl rushing record of 197 yards. He opened the scoring with a three-yard run 7:07 into the first quarter.

True freshman Carson Palmer completed 17-of-28 passes for a season-best 280 yards to rally USC.

The Horned Frogs put away the game by chewing more than six minutes off the clock before pinning USC inside its 15 with less than two minutes remaining.

BOWL HISTORY

1999 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

TCU 28, East Carolina 14 · Dec. 22, 1999

MOBILE, Ala. — LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-14 victory over No. 20 East Carolina in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl.

It was the second consecutive bowl upset for TCU (8-4). East Carolina (9-3) entered the game as six-point favorites. That didn't bother the Horned Frogs, who completely shut down the Pirates' running game, holding them to minus-16 yards.

East Carolina went into the game focusing on stopping Tomlinson, whose 1,850 yards edged Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne for the NCAA Division I rushing title.

TCU, which alternated between quarterbacks Casey Printers and Patrick Batteaux, made it impossible for the Pirates to adjust.

Early in the first quarter, Printers gained seven yards on an option run to move TCU to the 2. Batteaux came in on the next play and pitched the ball to Tomlinson, who ran in for the touchdown. That tied the game at 7 and TCU slowly pulled away from there.

East Carolina, which couldn't run the ball at all against TCU, had to go to the air in the second half. It initially worked, but early in the fourth quarter, Russell Gary intercepted Garrard's pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. That gave TCU a 28-14 lead with 14:04 to play.

2000 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

Southern Miss 28, TCU 21 · Dec. 20, 2000

MOBILE, Ala. — Jeff Kelly's 28-yard touchdown pass to freshman Kenny Johnson with eight seconds left lifted Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over No. 13 TCU in the Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In the first major bowl game of the season, TCU tailback LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 118 yards, his lowest total of the season. The Heisman Trophy finalist carried 28 times and scored two TDs in the third quarter.

Southern Miss (8-4) got a second chance after a fourth missed field goal, and trusted their senior quarterback instead of the shaky kicking game.

With 33 seconds left, they took over at the TCU 43-yard line after Mobile native Etric Pruitt got a hand on John Braziel's punt. Kelly threw two incompletions, then scrambled 14 yards for a first down. On the next play, he lofted a perfect strike over the middle just above safety LaVar Veale's outstretched arm, victimizing the nation's top defense.

The Horned Frogs (10-2) endured a December coaching change and uncertainty over who would lead them into the game. In the end, former defensive coordinator Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione on the sidelines. Franchione left for Alabama Dec. 1 and was initially expected to coach the bowl game. TCU officials decided late last week to allow the Patterson era to begin a season early.

Texas A&M 28, TCU 9 · Dec. 28, 2001

HOUSTON — Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU (6-6) in the galleryfurniture .com Bowl.

The Aggies (8-4) beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times.

Jones earned MVP honors and also was the defensive player of the game with three tackles. Starting in place of injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frog 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance but Jones had a 15-yard interception to the TCU 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Mark Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half for a 7-7 tie. It was the second longest fumble return in school history.

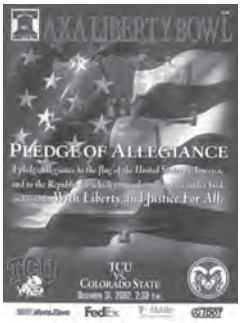
BOWL HISTORY

2002 AXA LIBERTY BOWL

TCU 17, Colorado State 3 · Dec. 31, 2002



MEMPHIS, Tenn. — TCU figured out how to stop Colorado State standout Cecil Sapp after just two runs in the Liberty Bowl.

Sapp reeled off big gains of 59 and 25 yards on the Rams' first two possessions, but had 22 yards the rest of the game, and TCU tailback Ricky Madison stole the show with 111 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Horned Frogs beat No. 23 Colorado State 17-3 Tuesday.

It was the Horned Frogs' 500th victory in school history.

Madison ran for 107 of his yards in the rainy second half as TCU's offense came alive after a sloppy opening by both teams.

In the first half, the teams combined for three lost fumbles, two interceptions, a missed field goal and an unsuccessful faked field goal. Their sloppy play made for the lowest scoring first half of a Liberty Bowl since Penn State led Tulane 6-0 in 1979.

TCU (10-2) finally put together a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive led by Lonta Hobbs in the closing minutes of the second quarter. The freshman ran for 39 yards in the drive, capped when Sean Stilley threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to LaTarence Dunbar with 1:21 remaining to put TCU up 7-0 at the break.

The Rams were held to 89 yards rushing - compared with 197 for TCU - for their lowest total of the season. TCU also outgained Colorado State 338-149.

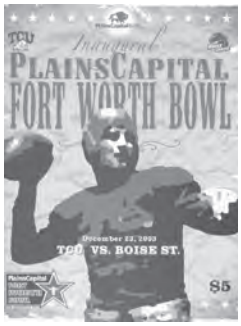
2003 PLAINSCAPITAL FORT WORTH BOWL

Boise State 34, TCU 31 · Dec. 22, 2003



FORT WORTH — Ryan Dinwiddie, who ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football, threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 18 Broncos (13-1) to a 34-31 win Tuesday night over No. 19 TCU in the inaugural Fort Worth Bowl.

Their bowl win on TCU's campus wasn't secured until sophomore Mike Wynn was well short on a 51-yard field goal attempt, the first kick in his college career, with 7 seconds left.

TCU (11-2) had its school-record 13-game home winning streak snapped. The Frogs had been in contention for a Bowl Championship Series spot until their only regular-season loss Nov. 20 and then turned down an invitation to last week's GMAC Bowl because it conflicted with exams.

Dinwiddie hit 19 of 35 passes with two interceptions, but his last touchdown was an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score with 12:43 left.

"I thought we beat them on both sides of the football. Three big plays beat us," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "There's a reason they've won a lot of games."

2005 EV1.NET HOUSTON BOWL

#14 TCU 27, Iowa State 24 · Dec. 31, 2005

HOUSTON — Peter LoCoco hit a 44-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the game to put TCU on top 27-24 and the defense held Iowa State in check on the ensuing drive for the victory at Reliant Stadium.

The TCU defense forced four Iowa State turnovers and Robert Merrill reached the century mark in rushing yards for the 10th time in his career as he ran for 109 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown to help lead the Frogs to the win.

TCU scored on its opening two possessions for a 14-0 lead just 6:36 into the contest. The two touchdowns came in a 1:55 span. The Horned Frogs took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard Merrill touchdown run.

On the second play of Iowa State's ensuing possession, Jeremy Modkins forced a fumble that was recovered by Drew Coleman, giving the Frogs possession at the Cyclone 21. Three plays later, an Aaron Brown 7-yard scoring run extended TCU's lead to 14-0.

Iowa State scored 17 points in a 4:30 stretch of the second quarter to take a 17-14 lead with 10:30 left in the first half.

The Cyclones' third turnover of the first half, a fumble recovery by David Roach, led to the Frogs going back on top. The first snap of TCU's ensuing series saw Jeff Ballard connect on an 84-yard touchdown pass to Michael DePriest to give the Frogs a 21-17 lead with 4:05 left.

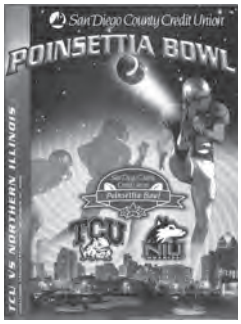
2006 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

#25 TCU 37, No. Illinois 7 · Dec. 19, 2006



SAN DIEGO — Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7.

While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked like more of a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

Wolfe came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

TCU 20, Houston 13 · Dec. 28, 2007

HOUSTON — Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 marked the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival. He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed. It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

2008 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

#11 TCU 17, #9 Boise State 16 · Dec. 23, 2008

SAN DIEGO — Joseph Turner dove into the end zone for the winning score, and LaDainian Tomlinson went nuts on the sideline.

Turner's 17-yard run midway through the fourth quarter gave the No. 11 Horned Frogs their first lead of the night, during a 17-16 victory over No. 9 and previously undefeated Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.

BSU was trying to finish 13-0 for the second time in three seasons. The Broncos took a 10-0 lead on Ian Johnson's 20-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter, but their high-scoring offense bogged down against TCU's fast, aggressive defense.

TCU piled up yards if not points until finally wearing down the Broncos' defense in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs moved 80 yards in 10 plays on the winning drive, with Turner finishing it off by shedding a tackle inside the 5-yard line and diving into the end zone for a 17-13 lead.

After Turner's TD, Boise State got to the TCU 14 before having to settle for Kyle Brotzman's 33-yard field goal to pull to 17-16.

The Broncos got the ball back with 6 seconds left on their 33 and tried to lateral the ball after a catch, but Jeremy Childs' desperation flip was grabbed by TCU's Matt Panfil.

TCU outgained Boise State 472 yards to 250.

BOWL HISTORY

2010 FIESTA BOWL

#6 Boise State 17, #3 TCU 10 · Jan. 4, 2010

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Boise State reached into its bag of tricks again and stunned TCU in a Fiesta Bowl duel of unbeaten BCS busters. It was the first time two schools from leagues without automatic BCS bids have met in one of college football's biggest bowls.

After the Broncos pulled off a gutsy fake punt at their own 33-yard line, Doug Martin scored the decisive touchdown to give No. 6 Boise State a 17-10 victory over third-ranked TCU.

A 10-10 stalemate came alive when punter Kyle Brotzman hit wide-open Kyle Efaw with a 30-yard strike with about 9 minutes to play. Four plays later, Martin dove over a tackler from 2 yards out as the Broncos became the second school ever to go 14-0, joining Ohio State in 2002.

The Broncos caught the Horned Frogs napping on the fake punt by Brotzman. Kellen Moore then completed three straight passes to advance to the 2, and Martin scored to put Boise State up 17-10 with 7:21 to go.

TCU took over at its own 1 with 1:06 remaining and marched to the Boise State 30 before cornerback Brandyn Thompson disrupted a pass by Andy Dalton, and Winston Venable picked it off to end the threat. Thompson set up the winning drive with his second interception of the game. He returned his first pick 51 yards for the game's first score.

TCU's touchdown came on a 30-yard pass from Dalton to Curtis Clay that pulled the Frogs to within 10-7 at halftime.

2011 ROSE BOWL

#3 TCU 21, #5 Wisconsin 19 · Jan. 1, 2011

PASADENA, Calif. — Andy Dalton threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score, linebacker Tank Carder swatted down a 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2 minutes to play, and No. 3 TCU completed a perfect season with its first Rose Bowl victory, 21-19 over fourth-ranked Wisconsin on Saturday.

Bart Johnson caught an early TD pass and recovered a late onside kick for the Mountain West champion Horned Frogs (13-0), who followed up their second straight unbeaten regular season by busting the BCS in dramatic fashion.

Dalton passed for 219 yards for TCU, which won't win the national title - that will go to either Auburn or Oregon. They meet in the BCS championship game in nine days.

Luke Shivers' 1-yard TD run put TCU ahead 21-13 early in the third quarter, but neither team scored again until Wisconsin mounted a 77-drive in the waning minutes. Montee Ball rushed for a 4-yard score with 2 minutes to play, but Carder made a perfectly timed leap at the line to bat down Scott Tolzien's throw to the end zone. The intended receiver was open in the end zone.

Dalton went 15 for 23 and rushed for a first-quarter score, winning the game's offensive MVP award. But the defense deserved the credit for hanging on when TCU couldn't score in the game's final 26 minutes.

Carder was the leader all game and the man at the end.

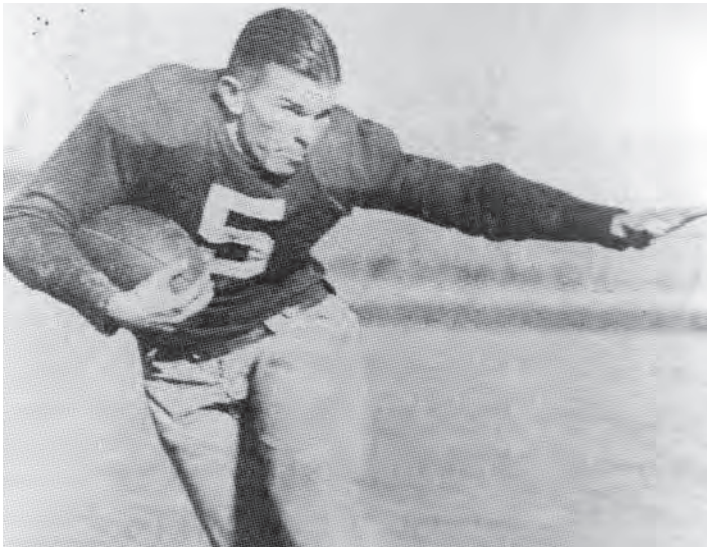
ALL-TIME LEGENDS

RAGS MATTHEWS (1925-27)

Raymond (Rags) Matthews became the first player in TCU football history to earn All-America honors in 1927, during his second straight All-Southwest Conference season as an end. Matthews was somewhat of a rags to riches story. A product of Polytechnic High School of Fort Worth, he was regarded as a big and awkward but unusually aggressive recruit. As a sophomore, he was used at guard. Prior to his junior year, Rags was shifted to end. He became the third person in TCU annals to earn varsity letters in four sports. Before picking up his diploma, Matthews had numerals for football, basketball, baseball and track. "The Raggedy Man," as he was called by some scribes, made a reputation for himself and his school with his taunting, verbal challenges to opposing players.

CY LELAND (1928-30)

Cy Leland stands out as one of the most successful multi-sport athletes in TCU history, as he ranks as one of the school's best both on the football field and on the track. An All-Southwest Conference halfback on the Frogs' 1929 unbeaten conference championship team, Leland rushed for 100 yards four times in his career and three times in 1929. His 13 rushing touchdowns that season stood as a school record for 26 years, while his 17 career scores sat at the top of the TCU career charts until 1956. He led the nation in 1929 with a 7.2 yards per attempt rushing average, and his 93-yard punt return for a touchdown against Baylor that season remains the school record. Despite his football exploits, Leland's crowning athletic achievment came on the track, as he tied the world record in the 100-yard dash with a mark of 9.4 seconds at the 1930 Kansas Relays.



JIMMY LAWRENCE (1933-35)

Jimmy Lawrence may be the most underrated player in the history of Frog football, playing his most brilliant football in the shadow of the great Sam Baugh. Lawrence had three great seasons for TCU, leading the team in rushing in 1933 and 1935 and in scoring in 1934 and 1935, while also tying as leading receiver in 1935. The native of Harlingen, Texas, was described as "the heart of the Frogs' power attack and one of Sam Baugh's best targets in the forward pass." Primarily a halfback, Lawrence also served as the team's punter and played safety on defense. He was named All-Southwest Conference as a sophomore and as a senior. Legend has it that he would have made it as a junior if he hadn't punched out the umpire in a game that season. Lawrence played professionally for the Chicago Bears from 1936-38 and for the Green Bay Packers from 1939-41.

DARREL LESTER (1933-35)

One of TCU's all-time two-way line performers, Darrell "Iron Man" Lester carved his niche into SWC football lore during the early 1930s. Called "Iron Man" because of his burning desire to play every second, Lester anchored the Horned Frog football team from 1933 to 1035,winning a total of 30 ball games, including captaining the 1935 12-1 squad. A native of Jacksboro, Texas, the 220-pound Lester not only was a consensus-choice All-American selection in 1934 – the University's first ever– but he repeated those honors after the 1935 season, becoming the Southwest Conference's first two-time All America player (1934 and 1935). Lester helped TCU to a stirring 3-2 Sugar Bowl victory over LSU. Lester performed for a pair of seasons with the Green Bay Packers (1937 and 1938) before a shoulder injury forced his early retirement from the sport. A founder of the Bluebonnet Bowl, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

DUTCH MEYER (HEAD COACH 1934-52)

L.R. (Dutch) Meyer ranks as one of college football's true coaching legends, leading the Horned Frogs as head coach from 1934 to 1953 and then as the director of athletics from 1950-63. Under his guidance, the Frogs won two national championships (1935 and 1938) and a trio of Southwest Conference titles. During that 20-year period "The Saturday Fox" – a master of the major upset – helped TCU to a 138-82-15 record as well as posting an 85-71 varsity baseball mark. An innovator, inspirational orator, and football tactician of immense talents, Meyer introduced to college football the spread offense, thus enhancing the passing game with the help of two of the greatest passers in the game: Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh. Meyer spent his entire career at TCU, gaining the nickname in the Fort Worth area of "Mr. Football." He began his Horned Frog career as the freshman coach in 1923 before gaining the head coaching position in 1934. He led TCU to seven bowl games.

SAM BAUGH (1934-36)

Perhaps no other player made a more powerful impact on football in the Southwest than did Slingin' Sammy Baugh of TCU during the 1930s. A flawless passer, a dandy punter and a gifted defensive back, the angular Baugh was called by Dutch Meyer "the greatest athlete I ever saw." Generally considered the first of the great passers in college football, all Baugh did was rewrite the SWC and TCU passing and punting record books and sprinkle in a few interception (not thrown but caught) marks for good measure. Some of his school records stood for over 50 years. In three years (1934-35-36), Baugh, whose jersey was formally retired by TCU in 1993, deftly helped the Horned Frogs to 29 victories, a Sugar Bowl crown and a Cotton Bowl title. The Sweetwater, Texas native was a unanimous two-time All-SWC selection and a consensus All-American in 1936. He later became a nine-time All-Pro during his 16 illustrious seasons with the Washington Redskins. Baugh is a member of every collegiate and professional football hall of fame.

JOHNNY VAUGHT (1934-36)

Rare individuals come along who leave their Hall of Fame Marks on the gridiron as both a player and coach; former TCU great Johnny Vaught managed to pull it off, captaining the Horned Frogs' 1932 conference championship and heading the Ole Miss football program for a quarter century. From 1930-32, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors twice and consensus All-America honors as a guard. Vaught, the first genuine All-American footballer developed and displayed on the Fort Worth playing fields, served as a standout lineman for the Horned Frog teams during the 1930-31-32 campaigns. He helped the team to a 28-4-2 record and its second-ever SWC championship under the leadership of Coach Francis Schmidt. Vaught began his coaching career at North Carolina from 1936-41. In 1946, he assisted at the Ole Miss for a year before moving up to head coach in 1947. In his 25-season tenure with the Rebels, 18 of his teams went to bowl games, 10 rated in the nation's Top 10, and four ranked among the Top Five. He led the school to six Southeastern Conference titles and compiled190 victories before retiring in 1970. An election to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame followed soon after in 1979.

DAVEY O'BRIEN (1936-38)

Davey O'Brien became the first person to win the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell trophies as the nation's outstanding football player. After directing the Horned Frogs to the national championship in 1938, he was the first winner of the coveted Heisman to come from the Southwest Conference. He did it all – running, passing, place-kicking, returning kicks, punting and intercepting passes. O'Brien held national records for number of punts returned in a season (58 in 1937); total punt and kickoff returns in a season (72 in 1937); and total punt returns in a career (116). He held many other passing and total offense records that slowly have been broken through the years. He led the nation in passing both in 1937 and 1938, and was the tops in total offense across the nation in 1938. The Horned Frogs' amazing quarterback threw a touchdown pass in every game in 1938. He played all but 14 minutes of the entire 1937 season.

ALL-TIME LEGENDS

KI ALDRICH (1936-38)

"Aldrich is probably the greatest defensive center in history." That's the way LIFE magazine described TCU's center-linebacking demon, Charles "Ki" Aldrich, following the 1938 season when the Horned Frogs won the national championship.Aldrich, the 5-11, 198-pounder from Temple, Texas, had been a consensus All-American (after earning some first team A-A honors the previous season) that year, plus he was named all-Southwest Conference for the third time. He was considered so important to TCU that his teammates named him MVP of the team, a surprising feat when one considers that it was Davey O'Brien who became the Southwest Conference's first Heisman Trophy winner that same season. Many years later, former Horned Frog teammate and one-time childhood neighbor, Sam Baugh, said of the phenomenal Aldrich: "Ki was absolutely the toughest player I was ever around." After being drafted in the first-round of the 1939 draft, Aldrich played professionally with the Chicago Cardinals and the Washington Redskins. He was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1960.

I.B. HALE (1936-38)

The physically-impressive I.B. Hale was hailed as the "greatest lineman in America" by famed sportswriter Francis Wallace in 1938. As well as serving as team captain, the 6-2, 245-pound Hale anchored the offensive and defensive lines from his tackle spot for the Frogs' 1938 national championship team. He gained All-America honors in both 1937 and 1938, as well as all-SWC recognition both his junior and senior seasons at TCU. Hale, whose brilliant college career spanned both the first-ever Cotton Bowl (TCU vs. Marquette in 1937) and the 1939 Sugar Bowl, had been a teammate of Davey O'Brien at Dallas' Woodrow Wilson High School. After his career at Frogland, Hale was a first-round pick in the NFL. Later a high school coach, a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and a top-rated Southwest Conference football official prior to his death in 1971, Hale was inducted posthumously into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1985.

LINDY BERRY (1946-49)

It was only natural for a guy named after that famed aerialist Charles Lindbergh to become one of the best passers in the nation. So, it was no surprise to some when Lindy Berry became just that in the late-1940s. After gaining second-team all-Southwest Conference honors as a sophomore, Berry saved the best for last, making the first all-league teams as a junior, and as a senior, when he capped his career with prominent All-America mention in 1949. Berry led Southwest Conference football in both rushing and total offense as a junior during the 1948 season and found himself as the busiest back in the nation with his 324 total offensive plays. He ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in total offense. Captain as a senior, Berry again paced the SWC in total offense, ranking third in the nation. Although known mostly for his offensive fireworks and feats, Berry was quite a defensive star, too. His interception of a Texas pass in the fourth quarter of the 1949 game near the TCU goal enabled the Horned Frogs to hang on for a 14-13 upset.

ABE MARTIN (HEAD COACH 1953-66)

Othol "Abe" Martin led the Frogs to a 74-64-7 record over 14 season prior to serving as TCU athletics director for a decade from 1966 through 1975. A founding member of TCU's Southwest Conference dominance, having played on the first TCU team to win the SWC championship in 1929, Martin began his TCU coaching career as the head coach of the freshman football team in 1945 before his promotion in 1953 following the Dutch Meyer era. Truly a player's coach, Martin's TCU ballclubs won three SWC crowns and played in five post-season bowl games, including victories in three Cotton Bowls. Also, some of the university's greatest football players — Jim Swink, Don Floyd, Bob Lilly, Hugh Pitts, Norman Hamilton, Jack Spikes, and Tommy Joe Crutcher just to name a few — were produced during the Abe Martin era. Seven of them claimed All-American honors, and more than a dozen all-Southwest Conference recognition. Martin was named SWC Coach of the Year in 1955 and 1958.

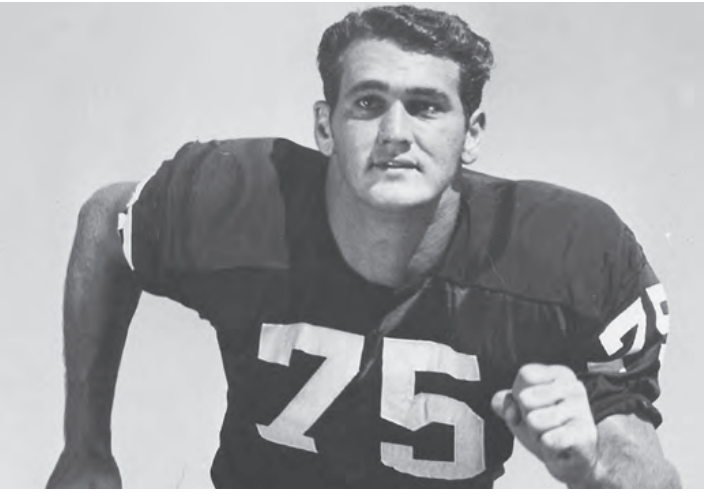
JIM SWINK (1954-56)

Few players in the history of college football have enjoyed as much success against one team as Jim Swink did against the rival Texas Longhorns during his three-year stint of 1954-55-56. During that three-game series, Swink did practically everything to the Longhorns except barbecue Bevo, rushing for an average of 168 yards per game while scoring 19 points per contest. He averaged 13.3 yards every time he carried the pigskin from scrimmage against the Horns. The "Rusk Rambler" is still regarded as one of the greatest running backs ever to play for TCU and in the SWC; his great games were numerous, with his gliding, side-stepping running style. As a junior in 1955, he was the nation's leading scorer and second-leading ground gainer, totaling 125 points and rushing for 1,283 net yards. A two-time All-American, Swink finished runner-up for the Heisman Trophy for his performance that season and was later named to the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. Half a century later, Jim Swink's legend still surrounds TCU.

DON FLOYD (1957-59)

The fabulously-gifted Don Floyd was the stalwart of TCU's stellar forward walls of the 1958 and 1959 campaigns. By clearing massive paths for such standouts as All-American Jack Spikes and all-SWC Marvin Lasater on offense, and while supplying some punishing stops on the other side, Floyd helped the Horned Frog gridders to a pair of conference crowns and two consecutive bowl showings. Floyd, a product of Midlothian, Texas, captured all-Southwest Conference and All-America honors at tackle in both his junior and senior campaigns, including consensus All-America credentials in 1959. Floyd's impressive two-way performance versus Texas in 1958, clearing a major hurdle in TCU's drive to the Cotton Bowl, earned him Associated Press National Lineman-of-the-Week honors. Floyd helped captain the '59 team.Although not overly large for his position (he played college ball at 6-3 and 220 pounds), Floyd played for eight NFL seasons (1960-67) with the Houston Oilers.



BOB LILLY (1958-60)

It is somewhat debatable whether Bob Lilly's collegiate football career or his professional one was more impressive since both were absolutely superb tenures of Hall of Fame proportions. A member of the all-time SWC Dream Team, this great from Throckmorton was the main thrust behind the 1958-59-60 Horned Frog teams which captured two Southwest Conference titles, plus appeared in the 1959 Cotton Bowl, as well as the Bluebonnet Bowl the following season. Lilly was a consensus All-America choice in 1960. And in the spring of 1961 he became the Dallas Cowboys' first-ever draft choice. He would later go on to earn the nickname "Mr. Cowboy." For 14 seasons, nine times as an All-Pro, Lilly terrorized the National Football League as a dominating defensive tackle. He became Dallas' first member of the "Cowboy Ring of Honor" and was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1980. Lilly was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994.

MICHAEL REEDER (1994-97)

The top place kicker in TCU history, Michael Reeder set a new standard for Frogs in the department from 1994 through 1997. The 1995 Lou Groza Award winner as the nation's top kicker, Reeder led the NCAA in field goals as a sophomore, drilling 23 field goals on 25 attempts to claim consensus first-team All-America honors. He concluded his TCU career owning school records for points by a kicker (259), field goal attempts in a season (25) and a career (76), field goals made in a season (23) and a career (57) and consecutive PATs made (79). Reeder drilled a school-record 57-yard field goal in 1996 against UTEP that still ranks as the longest in TCU history and overall owns three of the seven longest kicks ever made by a Horned Frog. He was named to the TCU Letterman's Association Hall of Fame in 2009.

ALL-TIME LEGENDS

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON (1997-2000)

LaDainian Tomlinson was an unheralded player coming out of Waco's University High when he arrived on the Fort Worth campus in 1997. Early in his junior season, he rushed for 269 yards against Arkansas State, then followed that up two weeks later with a 300-yard performance against San Jose State. L.T. later galloped into the national spotlight with an NCAA record 406 yards on 43 carries with a school-record six touchdowns vs. UTEP. He grabbed the 1999 national rushing title with 1,850 yards, just ahead of Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne of Wisconsin. L.T. not only repeated as the NCAA rushing champion in 2000, but also became the first back in school history to gain 2,000 yards on the ground. His 2,158 yards as a senior was the fourth-highest single-season total in NCAA history at the time, while his 5,263 career rushing yards ranked sixth. Tomlinson was a finalist for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, finishing fourth, and was the winner of the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back. Tomlinson carried that success with him to the NFL with the San Diego Chargers, as he was selected fifth overall in the 2001 NFL Draft.

JERRY HUGHES (2006-09)

Jerry Hughes put the cap on one of the most dominating careers ever for a TCU defensive player in 2009, when he became only the second two-time consensus first-team All-American in school history. Hughes helped put a face on a Frog defense that dominated the decade of the 2000s. TCU led the nation in total defense an NCAA-best four times in 10 seasons. Hughes emerged as a major force for TCU as a junior and finished his career with 26.5 sacks and 34.5 tackles for loss over the last 26 games of his career. A breakthrough 2008 campaign, featuring a nation-best 15.0 sacks, put him in the national spotlight, and he followed with 11.5 more sacks as a senior to help lead TCU to a perfect 12-0 regular season and a berth in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. Hughes, who won the Lott Trophy and the Ted Hendricks Award as a senior, was selected with the 30th overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. He currently owns the Nos. 2 and 3 single-season sack totals in school history. He is tied for second in career sacks with 28.5.

ANDY DALTON (2007-10)

The holder of every major TCU passing record, Andy Dalton had a 42-7 record as a starting quarterback. He is the Horned Frogs' all-time leader in wins, breaking the previous mark of 29 held by Slingin' Sammy Baugh (1934-36). Dalton was the Horned Frogs' career leader in completions (812), attempts (1,317), completion percentage (61.7), passing yards (10,314) and touchdown passes (71). His career interception percentage (2.3) ranked as the third-lowest mark among active quarterbacks in 2010. The Katy, Texas, native rushed for 1,611 yards and 22 touchdowns in his career. The 22 rushing scores are the most by a quarterback in TCU history while placing seventh overall on the Horned Frogs' all-time list. A 2010 finalist for the Manning Award, Johnny Unitas Award and Bobby Bowden Award, Dalton was also a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award. He finished ninth in Heisman Trophy voting. Dalton was a two-time Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year. He set TCU single-season records with a 66.1 completion percentage and 27 touchdown passes in his final season. Dalton concluded his TCU career as the Rose Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player in the Horned Frogs' 21-19 win over Wisconsin. It was his third bowl game MVP award. Dalton was the 35th overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

JAKE KIRKPATRICK (2007-10)

Jake Kirkpatrick was the anchor of TCU's offensive line that enabled the Frogs to set single-season school records for touchdowns (73), points scored (541), first downs (327) and total offense (6,199 yards) and win the Rose Bowl in 2010. He was the recipient of the 2010 Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's top center and was also the lone offensive player to be one of four finalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award. Under Kirkpatrick's leadership, TCU ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards). The Frogs tied for fifth in fewest sacks allowed, surrendering just nine in 13 contests (0.7 per game). In his senior season, Kirkpatrick was named a first-team All-American by Walter Camp and Sporting News. Kirkpatrick, who set the blocking scheme on each play for the Horned Frogs, did not commit a penalty or allow a sack in his senior year. He started every game for TCU in 2009 and 2010, including the program's first two BCS bowl appearances.

TCU AND THE HEISMAN TROPHY

FROGS IN THE HEISMAN TROPHY VOTING

In the 70-year history of the Heisman Trophy, five Horned Frogs have finished in the top-five in voting for the prestigious trophy.

Sammy Baugh finished fourth in 1936, the second year the trophy was presented.

In 1938, Davey O'Brien became the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win the award.

Jim Swink finished second in 1955, while Kenneth Davis was the next Frog to receive serious consideration for the honor in 1984 when he finished fifth.

In 1999, LaDainian Tomlinson placed 14th as a junior. He was fourth after his senior season in 2000.

Quarterback Andy Dalton was ninth overall in the Heisman voting after the 2010 season.

Davey O'Brien accepts the Heisman Trophy at New York's Downtown Athletic Club in 1938, the same year he led TCU to its second national championship.

TCU celebrates Davey O'Brien's historic Heisman Trophy in the Encke Heritage Center, which is located directly outside of the Frogs' football offices.

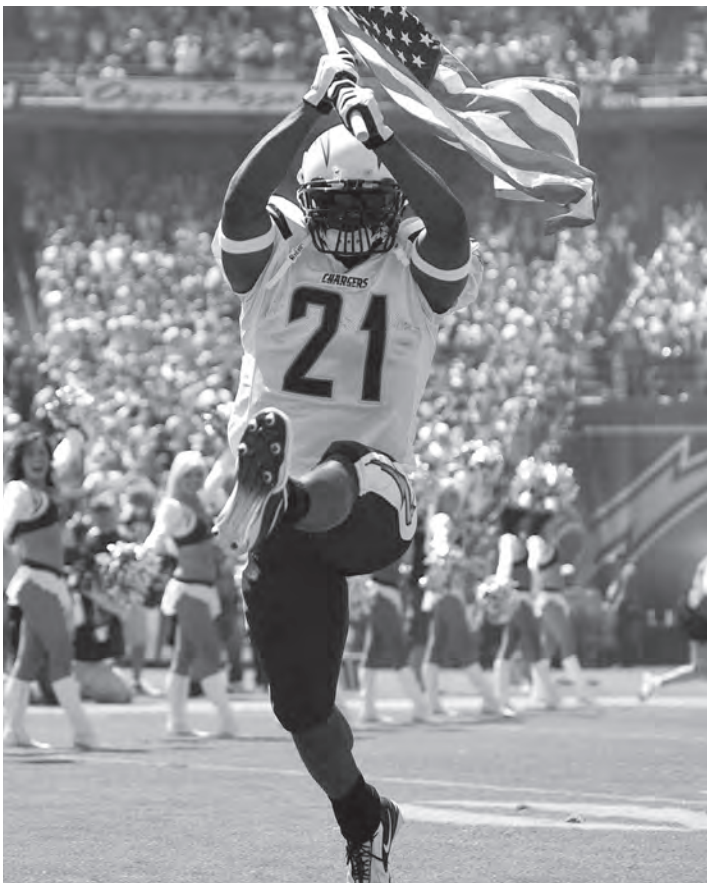
MARVIN WHITE

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON: HORNED FROG LEGEND



After helping start a renaissance of the TCU football program at the turn of the century, former Horned Frog tailback LaDainian Tomlinson took his show to the NFL, where he has become one of the league's superstars. Tomlinson, who was named the NFL's MVP in 2006, set a single-season record by scoring 31 touchdowns and rushed for more than 1,100 yards in each of his first eight seasons.

NOVEMBER 20, 1999
Sets an NCAA single-game record with 406 yards rushing in a 52-24 win over UTEP.

DECEMBER 16, 2000
Places fourth in voting for the 2000 Heisman Trophy.

JANUARY 30, 2001
Presented the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

APRIL 21, 2001
Becomes the fifth overall pick in the NFL draft by the San Diego Chargers.

NOVEMBER 12, 2005
TCU honors jersey No. 5 in a halftime ceremony as part of "LT Day" during a 51-3 victory over UNLV.

DECEMBER 10, 2006
Sets the NFL single-season touchdown record in the Chargers' 48-20 win over Denver.

JANUARY 4, 2007
Selected as the NFL's Most Valuable Player by a landslide vote. Later named NFL Man of the Year to become only the second player to win both awards in the same season. The other was Hall of Famer Walter Payton in 1977.

DECEMBER 30, 2007
Wins second straight NFL rushing title with 1,474 yards, although the total was only the fourth-highest of his distinguished career.

DECEMBER 28, 2008
Rushes for 96 yards and three touchdowns to help the Chargers clinch the AFC West Division title for the third straight year with a 52-21 victory over Denver. He cracked the 1,000-yard rushing barrier for the eighth straight season in 2008 with 1,110 yards, while he added 11 touchdowns.

MARCH 14, 2010
Tests the free-agent market for the first time in his career following nine seasons in San Diego by signing a two-year/$5.2 million contract with the New York Jets. He enters his 10th season ranked No. 2 on the NFL's all-time rushing touchdowns list behind only Hall of Famer Emmitt Smith.
